DR. W. W. HOLMES NAMED EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

To Serve Without Salary, in Connection with Pastorate

At the session of the Conference in Alexandria, the Board of Christian Education, because of pressing financial obligations, was not able to place in the field a full-time Executive Secretary. They were fortunate to secure the consent of Dr. W. W. Holmes to serve as Executive Secretary, in addition to the numerous duties resting upon him as Pastor of our great First Church, Alexandria. The Board is confident that the whole program of Christian Education, as now constituted, will be wisely guided under the direction of one so long experienced in the Pastorate, and who has been most sympathetic with every great interest of the local Church.

The prayers and sympathetic interest of the whole Church should be with him in his enlarged duties. May we all join together with him and his associates in carrying out a program which shall conserve all values of the past and go forward in the new with solid progress and constructive building.

Those who are to serve with him in this important work are:

Rev. A. K. McLellan, Extension Secretary.

Miss Elizabeth Langford, Young People's Secretary.

Mrs. W. W. Holmes, Superintendent of Children's Division.

Rev. J. B. Grambling, Superintendent of Young People's Division.

Rev. D. B. Raulins, Superintendent of Adult Division.

Rev. A. S. Lutz, Superintendent of Training Division.

Rev. W. Winans Drake, Superintendent of Missionary Education.

Presiding Elders:

Rev. A. S. Lutz, Alexandria District.

Rev. L. W. Cain, Baton Rouge District.

Rev. J. W. Lee, Lake Charles District.

Rev. W. R. Harvell, Minden District.

Rev. E. C. Gunn, Monroe District.

Rev. W. L. Doss, New Orleans District.

A Word From the Executive Secretary

The task of the Board of Christian Education is probably not as intricate and difficult as we have allowed ourselves to believe. For many years the Church has been engaged in Christian Education through our Colleges, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues. Our new task is to bring these into closer relationship. We seek coordination and cooperation instead of separation and competition. We want, as far as possible, to avoid overlapping. Our task is to give our young people Christian Education and Training. If we keep this clearly in mind we need have no fear of becoming entangled in the machinery. The young people themselves are the center of the program. The Board is their Agent.

In this New Year I hope we may be guided in always putting first things first.

ANNUAL UNION PRESIDENTS MEETING

January 24-25, 1931

The annual meeting of Epworth League Union presidents and Conference Officers will take place in Alexandria on January 24-25. The first session will begin at two p. m., Saturday, at the Educational Building of the Methodist Church. The last session will be concluded Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Each union is asked to defray the expense of its president, or a substitute, to this meeting. Special rates of $1.00 per person can be had at the Rapides Hotel for rooms. Meals will be reasonable.

Where Union Presidents can come in cars they are urged to bring any District Secretaries or other conference officers who desire to make the trip. The conference treasury is not in a position to defray the expense of its officers but their presence is very much desired if they can arrange to attend. By making the trip in a car several could attend for the price of one railroad fare.

This meeting will be of great importance because plans for the new program of work among our young people in Sunday School and Epworth League will be presented. Dr. W. W. Holmes, Executive Secretary, Dr. F. L. Wells, Board President, Rev. A. K. McLellan, Extension Secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Langford, Young People's Secretary, will report on the Sunday School and Epworth League Council in Nashville. Plans for the summer Assemblies, Anniversary and Sunday School Day Observances and other important dates will be formulated. A special discussion of Union promotion will be led by our Superintendent of Unions, Mr. Floyd James of Ruston.

Be prepared to ask questions, make suggestions, and contribute to the success of this important meeting on January 24-25. Programs will be sent each Union President and Conference Officer before date of the meeting.

Though this meeting is primarily for young people, we invite any one interested to attend. We are especially anxious for the young people of the Sunday School who heretofore have not attended the Epworth League Conference sessions to come and contribute a part to the program.

putting across plans successfully, which others had dispaired of as impossible.

Wherever he went he impressed those about him as an humble, consecrated man of God. Many have been stirred deeply by these qualities so constantly in view, and expressed themselves as being drawn to him by ties thus engendered and welded in lasting friendships.

In the center of his heart was the image of a little child. The needs of the children involved in his own work were always on his heart. Every appeal he made was in the name of the "Childhood and Youth of Louisiana Methodism."

Self-denial is not a characteristic found in every individual. To one who has been close to Brother Atkinson for some years it didn't take long to discover that he placed himself last in everything. Instances could be given where he has denied himself in order that some phase of the work might go forward more successfully. We know the prayers of his friends and co-workers go with him as he takes up again the duties of a Pastorate.

Greetings From The Young People's Secretary

Hello, young people! Now that I have the huge responsibility of promoting the activities of all young people's work in this Conference I must count on you for co-operation. We want to show Methodism the metal of which young people are made. We are not only the church of tomorrow but we are largely the church of today. Our enthusiasm, determination, optimism and faith is needed if our church is to glow and grow.

During any re-organization period there is a possibility of lagging or becoming confused in new methods. Our best policy will be to proceed cautiously and surely. Don't turn away from your old program until you have the information and plans ready for the new. Where you are undecided or uninformed feel free to ask those who have the information in hand. This is what your conference leaders are for. We will get all the legislation to you as quickly as we receive it.

Now that I am to supervise young people's work of the Sunday School also, I must ask you to bear with me while I acquaint myself with this phase of my new work.

In the future my headquarters will be in Alexandria, La., Box 742. Send all correspondence to me there.

May God richly bless us in our great program of work, guiding our minds and hearts into an understanding of what He would have us do. May we study to show ourselves approved by Him, rightly dividing the word of truth.

Elizabeth Langford,
Young People's Secretary.

EPWORTH ERA CAMPAIGN JANUARY 11 - JANUARY 25

January the eleventh is Epworth Era night. Because of the value of the Epworth Era as our official organ, for years we have sought to place it in every home represented in the Epworth League.

The program on Epworth Era night should be in charge of the Era Agent, who should try to enlist the best talent of the League for the several numbers on the program.

Personal work must be done outside of the Devotional meeting to secure subscriptions. The quota required is at least one Era to every four members. This includes active, associate and honorary members. This is the minimum. Our ideal is an Era in every Epworth League home.

Awards are offered the Era Agent for subscriptions sent in by February the first. See the January Era for requirements. Renewal to subscriptions will count. Get those already subscribing to give their renewal during the campaign.

Every chapter should have a club of five Eras as property of the First Department, paid for out of the chapter budget, so that the devotional superintendent can always have access to Eras for those serving on the program. In clubs of five the Era is only $1.00 per year to one address.

REMEMBER JANUARY 11-25 — EPWORTH ERA CAMPAIGN.

EPWORTH LEAGUE UNIONS

The number of Epworth League Unions in the conference has steadily increased. We now have twenty-one active unions. The youngest of these is a new union in Ruston District made up of Hi-Leagues in the District. This union has been named the A. F. C. Union for our League motto. Miss Virginia Dawson of Homer is the president. It meets every other month, its next meeting being in Haynesville on the second Sunday in February.

It is the plan of the Young People's Secretary to carry the time and place of all union meetings in this monthly bulletin, so get ready to report this information to her for the next issue.

There are still a few chapters in the conference that are not affiliated with a union organization. Our motto is "Every chapter a member of a union, and every union active." If your chapter is not in a union, let us help you get one started.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD MERGED IN LARGER SERVICE PROGRAM

Mr. J. H. Carter, Chairman of the Sunday School Board for the past Conference year, called the Board together for the last time the first afternoon of the Conference Session. At the completion of all business, the affairs were in splendid shape, and in this form were given over to the newly organized Board of Christian Education.

The men constituting the Board deserve much consideration for the faithful, loyal service they have rendered in the upbuilding of the program of Christian Education, as emphasized in the progressive work done by the Sunday schools of the Louisiana Conference.

Among these, Mr. A. M. Mayo has rendered a conspicuous service as Treasurer, for many years, of the funds of the Board, and now that he retires in favor of a new organization, one can but say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

FLOYD B. JAMES ELECTED TREASURER OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

One of the largest tasks associated with the work of the Board of Christian Education has been entrusted to the capable management of Mr. Floyd B. James.

Mr. James is well known among the leaders of young people of the Conference, particularly in the Ruston District, where he has been instrumental in bringing about an enthusiastic interest and active work among League Unions and Local Chapters.

All monies directed to the various causes included in the program of the Board of Christian Education will be accepted and directed by him as Treasurer.

PLANS FOR THE COMING YEAR

It is hardly possible to give definite elements of the Program of Work for the coming year, because of the adjustments that are to be made as the needs are revealed.

1. In the Extension Program we are anxious for a unanimous observance of the Fourth Sunday as Missionary Day.
2. To assist workers in small Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues, especially those not reached heretofore.
3. Training Week in as many districts as may be wisely planned and successfully carried.
4. Assist in Revivals where Pastor may use Extension Secretary in connection with Cokesbury Training Work.
5. Visitation of local Churches for the purpose of promoting and arousing interest in the missionary work.

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?

The Board of Christian Education at our last Annual Conference voted to continue our Epworth League field work and to add to it the work of the Sunday Schools of the conference among the same age group. This work is to be financed largely by the young people themselves. Our Conference Promotional Pledges made by Epworth League chapters at the summer assembly each year are directed toward this work. This plan is to be continued.

The Conference Treasurer asked that all Conference Promotional Pledges be paid by December 1st so that the rest of the year could be directed to other pledges. To date less than half of this amount has been paid in and very few chapters have paid in full. We are making an URGENT call for the remainder of these pledges at an early date. In next month's issue of this Bulletin we will carry the names and amounts of all pledges paid to date, so that you can see where you stand. Will your chapter be in the list?

If you wait until the last minute to pay pledges you will deny your young people who want to attend the assemblies or you will report at assembly without paying in full. Pay your Conference Promotional Pledges Now, your Missionary Special Pledges before the fifteenth of April and spend the remainder of the year raising your delegate funds for the assemblies.

ASSEMBLY NEWS !!!

As your car drove off the grounds of Mansfield College at the close of the 1930 Assembly you were talking of the next assembly and determining then that YOU would be there. Now you are wondering when and where, and whether or not your name will be among those registered.

Well, we can tell you some of this news already, but the rest comes later, and of course part of it will have to be determined by you and your chapter.

The Senior and Hi Assemblies will be held at Mansfield College, Mansfield, La., as has been the custom for the past twelve years.

The personnel of the assemblies will consist of members of the Epworth Leagues, Young People's Sunday School Classes, and Young People's Missionary Societies. Delegates will be chosen from these organizations in the local church.

The Emphasis shall be on The Spiritual Life and the Theme "Growing With God." The classes will be adaptable to all phases of young people's work of the local church.

Tentative dates for the Assemblies are already under consideration. It is thought that the Senior Assembly will precede the Hi Assembly this year. These dates will be announced later.

PLAN NOW TO BE THERE !!

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY URGES THE ORGANIZATION OF ADULT CLASSES IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Excerpts from Kim's Report to the Korea Conference Board of Christian Education

As I look back on the whole year just finished I think it is the greatest, hardest and most sorrowful one I ever had in my life. Our Sunday School work in Korea, generally speaking, has been great in many ways.

The Korea National Sunday School Convention was great and the leaders' institutes were great and the zeal of the religious education has been great all over Korea.

It is natural to meet the hardest problems, if the movements were great and successful. But great sorrow was thrown upon the work and me. However, I thank God for His help and His sympathy.

Organization

Our Sunday School Board, the Korea Conference Sunday School Board, has twenty members, elected by the Conference, which holds an annual meeting at the time of the Annual Conference. The Board has an Executive Committee of seven members. We have a District association in each District of the Conference which a District Secretary serves without pay.

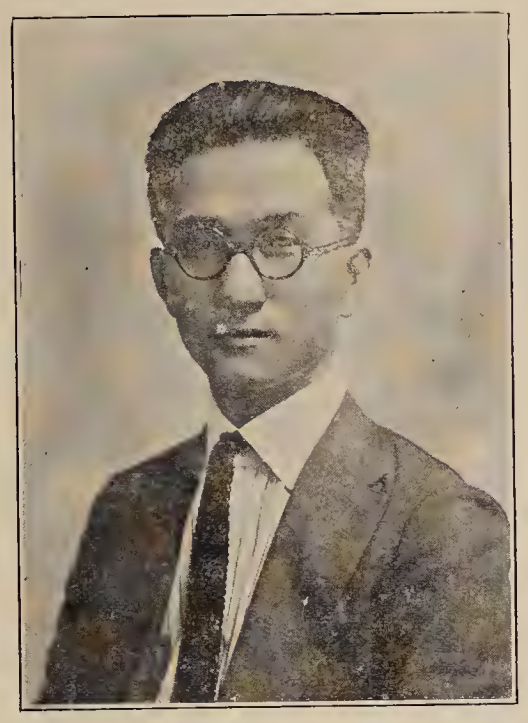
1. General officers: At the last Annual Conference Sunday School Board meeting in September, the following officers were elected,

Rev. Hong Pyung Sun, Chairman.

Rev. Kim Chong Man, recording secretary.

Rev. C. N. Weems, corresponding secretary.

2. General secretary staff,



REV. J. O. KIM

Rev. J. O. Kim, general secretary, who has carried all the responsibility of the work.

Mr. Yu Kun Chang, office secretary. Mr. Yu has been succeeded by Mr. Lee Chang Hi, who had been giving a faithful service to our work and last June left us for the State for his further education. Mr. Yu was graduated from our Songdo Higher Common School and Chosen Christian College. Then he tanght in several High Schools. He is a fine young Christian and thoroughly consecrated.

Adult Classes Should Register At Once

Dr. W. W. Holmes, Executive Secretary Conference Board of Christian Education, broadcasts an appeal to all Adult Classes to register with the Adult Division of our General Board of Christian Education.

Your registration should be made through the conference office at Alexandria, Box 742. Registration blanks will be sent on application.

Every Adult class registering AT ONCE will help the conference organization to establish contact and give guidance to the work and activities of the adult classes, especially in interpreting their work in the light of the new legislation made by the last General Conference.

A most important pamphlet, "The Adult Division in the Local Church," will be sent all pastors from the Adult Division of the General Board of Christian Education in the very near future.

Registration means organization and organization means purposeful planning with fruitful results.

PLANS PROVIDED FOR ENLARGED CIRCULATION OF THE BULLETIN

Price Provides Opportunity Placing Bulletin in Hands of Every Local Church Worker

'Send copies of the Bulletin to the 15 names enclosed with check to cover amount due,' writes Mr. A. M. Mayo, progressive Superintendent of our First Church, Lake Charles.

It would mean much to us in reaching the local church workers if every Superintendent would respond as Mr. Mayo with a large subscription list for each local Sunday school.

The Bulletin will be sent to every subscriber for 25 cents for the year.

May we urge every Pastor, Sunday School Superintendent, and Epworth League President, to send in their subscription list AT ONCE to Rev. A. K. McLellan, or Miss Elizabeth Langford, box 742, Alxeandria, in order that they may receive the February Bulletin of Christian Education.

Do we take the opportunities for the Missionary Education of Childhood and Youth seriously?

UNION PRESIDENTS AND STATE OFFICERS MEET

A most eventful and enthusiastic meeting of Methodist Young People's leaders convened at Alexandria on January 24 and 25. Every District in the Louisiana Conference was represented, 50 workers in attendance, including District Secretaries, Union Presidents, and other Conference officers. This meeting was held in place of the Annual Union Presidents Meeting, in order that all Conference Officers might take advantage of the opportunity to get acquainted with the new program of organization

Leaders' Training Institutes

As usual, our general and district Sunday School secretaries conducted the Sunday School institutes in every district. We had eleven institutes during the conference with large attendance. They are all splendid young people and are eager to see the vision of God.

Every year we are giving some training courses to the District Bible Class which meets annually in every district. Presiding elder is in charge of the class. It is not similar to the Sunday School training institutes. Last conference time the conference gave the district Bible class work over to our Sunday School department. Since then, we have arranged a new program of courses which means more proper study of the Bible and the Sunday School work. Therefore, during the past year we had three district Bible Classes in charge of the District Sunday School secretaries giving this new course. It was interesting, and we are hoping to make it more valuable.

In conclusion, we wish to express our deep gratitude to those in Korea and America who have so faithfully and generously helped us, and we hope the work may go forward and continually increase in usefulness in the future. Again, I wish to thank the secretaries of the Home Sunday School Board and districts of the Korea Annual Conference. Finally, I like to thank the Sunday Schools in Louisiana Conference and the Sunday Schools of Park Place M. E. Church, South, Greensboro, N. C., and the First Methodist Church of Shreveport, La. Beyond other help they have been giving, the Park Place and the First Church Sunday Schools this year united in giving me a motorcycle. It helps me a great deal in my visiting the district conferences and other travel connected with the work. Sometimes there is danger on the roads and so we are hoping to get a side car and take another worker along.

MRS. WARNER PROMOTES MISSIONS MONROE DISTRICT

Appealing Letter Sent Out For 100 Per Cent Observance

Mrs. D. C. Warner, Superintendent of Missionary Education Monroe District, has started the new year with a most interesting letter to Pastors and Superintendents of the Monroe District, urging them to make Missionary Education effective in the local church program and, also, to have an 100 per cent observance the fourth Sunday each month as Missionary Day.

This letter very appropriately stressed the necessity of observing the Fourth Sunday with a definite Missionary program in order that a missionary spirit may be stimulated, created, and led to a consuming desire to see 'Christ's Kingdom prevail on earth.'

ARE WE REALLY INTERESTED?

Is the spirit of missions really alive among our people?

Does heart and soul quicken and become aflame with desire to Evangelize?

Do the Missionary minded men and women, through example, lead others to proper missionary attitudes?

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The set-up meeting for the Opelousas Standard Training School is planned for Sunday, February 1st.

Through the efforts of Mrs. C. H. Deterly, Superintendent of Missionary Education in the Sunday School of our First Church, Baton Rouge, a gift of $26.01 was made to the Rev. J. O. Kim, Executive Secretary of the Korea Conference Board of Christian Education. It will be remembered that Brother Kim and his work is supported by the Sunday Schools of Louisiana.

Dr. H. T. Carley, Presiding Elder of the Shreveport District, announces a meeting for the study of the new program of Christian Education in the Local Church, at the First Methodist Church, Monday, February 2nd, at 10 o'clock. It is understood workers from the Minden District will also be present.

The most attractive church bulletin coming to our office during January is the "Church Outlook," published by the Rev. C. D. Atkinson, our Pastor at Lecompte.

UNION PRESIDENTS AND STAFF OFFICERS MEET

within the local church and throughout the Conference.

The first session opened at 4:00 P. M. Saturday, with Charles White, Conference President, presiding. It was regretted that Miss Elizabeth Langford, Young People's Conference Secretary Secretary, was unable to be present, account illness. After a short devotional led by Mr. Alfred Hansen, Revs. W. W. Holmes and A. K. McLellan reported on the recent Council held at Nashville, relative to the educational program. Mr. Floyd B. James led discussion on the Promotion and Growth of Unions.

The evening session was opened with an inspiring devotional led by the Rev. Guy M. Hicks, Pastor of First Church, Mansfield. The discussion on Union Plans was continued by Mr. James. March 8th was set for the observation of Anniversary Day —First Sunday in May chosen as Union Rally Day, when all the Unions in the Conference will convene at the same time throughout the State, and boost the Annual League Assemblies; the Senior, to be known as the "Young Peoples' Assembly," to be held June 10-16, and the Hi June 17-23.

Mr. Douglas Page, Assistant Conference Treasurer, reported on Finances, with urgent request that Conference Promotion and Mission Pledges be paid as soon as possible. Elsewhere in this issue is given a report of pledges made and paid to date.

Two sessions were held Sunday when reports were made on the Epworth Era Campaign and on the Report of the Findings' Committee at Nashville. New plans of organization of Young Peoples' work in the Local Church were thoroughly discussed, and Plan No. 2, "Plan of Cooperation," was considered as the most practical and best for the Louisiana Young People.

Discussions were completed early Sunday afternoon and after the President sounded the challenge that is before the group, the session was adjourned.

EPWORTH LEAGUE FINANCIAL REPORT

The space in this bulletin for this month is being given over to a report of the Union Presidents' Meeting and a financial report. It is hoped that these chapters behind in their pledges will bring them up in full. It is to your advantage to pay your pledges as soon as possible.

If there is an error in the following be sure to write Elizabeth Langford, Box 742, Alexandria, La., about it.

ANNIVERSARY DAY OBSERVANCE URGED

March the Eighth Is the Date

Since the General Conference of 1890 there has been an annual date set aside in which the local church is charged to appropriately emphasize the young people's work of the church by suitable observance of the Anniversary of the Epworth League.

This was forty-one years ago. Our latest Discipline (Paragraph 461) says: "It shall be the duty of the Local Church Board of Christian Education to see that appropriate emphasis is given annually to the work of the young people's organization by suitable observance of the Anniversary of the Epworth League."

March the Eighth Is the Date

In our Louisiana Conference we have set March 8th as Anniversary Day, but urge each pastor to choose the Sunday in March that is best suited to his program.

Special Pageant

A special pageant, "All for Christ," is off the press. It sets forth the new plan of work and is very instructive and fitted to any size church. It sells for 15c per copy, or six copies for 75c.

Where churches do not prefer using a pageant a splendid program is given on page 435 of the March Epworth Era.

Young People's Work Promoted by Offering

At the proper time an offering is taken for the promotion of Young People's work within the Conference. One fourth of it goes to Nashville for the Young People's work there. This offering is to be forwarded to Mr. F. H. Riggs. Box 1048, Monroe, La.

At our last annual conference a Young People's worker was retained in the field with the understanding that the observance of Anniversary Day, and pledges paid by the young people would finance the work represented by her. These are the only resources of help.

We know that our pastors and Leaguers will rally to this important date. Pastor, please observe Anniversary Day on the Sunday when you can assist with the program in each of your churches. Make it a great day for the Youth of Methodism.

A SERIES OF DISTRICT MEETINGS PLANNED

Miss Skinner writes, 'Perhaps during the year, if you plan a series of district or group meetings one of the workers from the Children's Division could be with you.'

This matter has been taken up with Miss Skinner and we hope to be able to announce the dates for these meetings in the next issue of the Bulletin.

Mrs. W. W. H.

IMPORTANT

Conserving our financial resources no Missionary offering remittances will be acknowledged by post card receipt as has been our custom heretofore. Please use cancelled check as receipt, or check with page 4, Christian Education Bulletin.

VACATION SESSIONS OF CHURCH SCHOOL

If it is the purpose of your Sunday school to have vacation sessions, NOW is the time to begin your planning, for in order to make these sessions successful large preparation is required.

This preparation cannot be made in a week's time, hardly can it be done in two months time. The cooperation of parents must be secured. This will require visits to the homes. Units of work which will meet the needs, interests and capacities of each group must be decided upon. This means careful study. Time is necessary for all the helpers to become thorough by familiarizing themselves with the plans and the program. Time is necessary for the arrangement and collection of materials and equipment.

PREPAREDNESS will mean joyous participation on the part of the adults as well as the chlidren. We list below curriculum materials which are now available:

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLIES, MANSFIELD COLLEGE, JUNE 10-23

Mark these dates on your calendar: Young People's Assembly, June 10-16; Hi-Assembly, June 17-23, at Mansfield College, Mansfield, La.

For thirteen years the summer assemblies have played an important part in the Epworth League Program of our Louisiana Conference. Many young people look forward, each summer, to these meetings as opportunities for inspiration, training, good fellowship and broader contact with other youth within the conference.

Values of Assembly Broadened

In keeping with our new program, the values of the assemblies are now broadened to include all young people of the church, from both the Sunday School and the Epworth League. The Young People's Missionary Society goes out of existence as an organization and those young people below twenty-four years of age are urged to affiliate with the Sunday School and Epworth League program. They will

These lessons take up the junior's problems in home relationships, in contact with other boys and girls, and his relationship to the Church.

The pupil's book contains stories, questions for discussion, and suggested assignments. Both of these books should be in the hands of the teacher, and if desired, the pupil's books may be used for each pupil, although this is not necessary.

STUDENT INTER-CHURCH COUNCIL NEWLY ORGANIZED GROUP AT CENTENARY

The Student Inter-Church Council is a newly organized group on the Centenary Campus. This council is composed of two members from each religion represented in the student body of Centenary College. The President of the college, the Dean of the college and the student worker made a careful study of the students of the various religions and then selected from the entire group one dormitory student and one town student to serve on this council.

Purpose

The general purpose of this organization is to assist the college and the various churches of the city of Shreveport in their mutual problem of meeting the religious needs of the student body at the college. When a student enters Centenary his or her church preference must be made in turn has a list of all students exknown. Each member of this council pressing a preference for his or her particular religion. The members of this council stand between the clergy of the city and the student body. As a beginning, the council made as its goal the enrollment of every dormitory student in some church enterprise here in the city. This council fosters systematic church atendance. This organization does not supplant any of the other religious organizations already functioning on the campus. It works in harmony with these other organizations toward a common goal.

Results Gratifying

There are already some very gratifying results coming from the efforts of this organization. The members of this organization have shown considerable interest and enthusiasm in the work. They have elected officers and made definite plans for the

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY OBSERVANCE SUNDAY APRIL 19

Programs and Envelopes To Be Sent Local Schools. Date Optional.

Every Pastor and Superintendent is urged to consider the observance of Sunday School Day in the local Sunday School this year more than has ever before been done.

If we are ever to impress those of the community of the importance of Christian education the church must be recognized as responsible for such a program and the Sunday School is one of the ways she has of reaching and teaching the growing life of the community. But, if the people do not know of the Sunday School and its place in the Christian education work of the church, and are not brought to fully understand and appreciate its aims and ideals, then those who are in positions of leadership in the church are at fault and must share the ineffectual results of the Sunday School at work and failure to reach those included in its scope.

Lack of understanding and appreciation of any organization or institutino will prevent it from reaching the large degree of usefulness and efficiency for which it was originally planned.

Sunday School Day places in our hands the opportunity, by careful preparation, of presenting to the community the aims, ideals, and practical administration of the local Sunday School and its importance in the Christian Education work of the church as it seeks to fulfill its teaching ministry to those intrusted to her care.

"We are sending our offering but did not have a program or make an effort to set aside a special day," writes one superintendent. This not only prevents any prayerful effort to seriously win the fullest appreciation of the church's teaching ministry but places an added strain on the Sunday School treasury. The program, if presented in a thoughtful, prayerful, intelligent manner, will arouse an interest which will express itself liberally when the opportunity for the offering is given.

We URGE every Pastor, Sunday School Superintendent and other leaders who are responsible for the success of the teaching ministry of the church to select one Sunday, if April 19 is not satisfactory, and bend every effort to exalt the work of the Sunday School in the Church's effort to teach, develop, and train the growing life of the community.

Assemblies This Summer History Making

Our Assemblies this summer will be indeed history making. The reorganization of all young people's work in the conference, district, union and local church will be introduced through Central Office Representatives and new plans for future work will be formulated.

Make Plans Now

There are bigger, better days ahead of us for our young people. Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and League presidents should be making plans, now, for their best leadership among the young people to attend. The Hi-Assembly is especially for those from twelve through seventeen. The Senior Assembly is planned for those above fifteen years of age.

Representation Desired From Every Local Church

Programs and other items of interest will be given you from time to time. Plan now to be there. We want representatives from every local church in the conference.

work of the year. The response of the students at large has been encouraging. One of the most interesting results of the work of this group has been the promotion of that beautiful spirit of religious unity and tolerance among the clergy and students. The spirit of religious unity is felt throughout the life of Shreveport. We feel that Centenary College has played its part in fostering and keeping alive that spirit of religious unity and goodwill. The members of this council, fourteen in number, visit in a body one of the churches of the city each Sunday. The clergyman of the church to be visited is notified in advance. He makes plans for the visit and makes public recognition of the group during the service. In one of the leading churches of the city the pastor planned a Young People's Service in honor of this visit from the college and asked the council members to take part in the service. Dr. Sexton, the president of the college, has made known to this group the details connected with the Spring Revival to be conducted by Bishop Arthur Moore. This council is making definite plans for this meeting. This council has, also, definite plans for the social and recreational life of the college.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECRETARY

It was the pleasure of the Young People's Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Langford, to visit wit hquite a number of the Epworth Leagues and Young People's Departments of the Sunday School during the past month, in a joint itinerary with Reverend A. K. McLellan, the two presenting the present program of Christian Education as related to our conference and local church.

Group meetings were held in different section of Lake Charles and Baton Rouge Districts. In practically every meeting there was a large delegation of young people. Chapters represented were: Many, Zwolle, Prospect, DeRidder, Leesville, Lake Charles, Vinton, Moss Bluff, Crowley, Lafayette Abbeville, First Church and Keener of Baton Rouge, St. Francesville, Zachary, Clinton, Hammond, Ponchatoula and Amite.

On February the 22nd Miss Langford visited with the Pineville young people at Sunday School and Morning Worship and with the new Hi-League at Coushatta in their regular devotional in the evening. At the night church hour Reverend Briscoe Carter preached, in an interesting manner, on the boy Samuel.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The March Epworth Era contains Hi-League News and snapshots of Louisiana.

Miss Julia Reid, our missionary in Cuba, who hails from Lake Charles, Louisiana, is to be at our summer Assembly in Mansfield. She is bringing two Cuban girls with her. This one attraction will bring many of Julia's admirers to Assembly.

Mr. La Verne Daily has been elected Sunday school Superintendent of the Sunday school at Many.

Rev. Guy M. Hick, District Executive Secretary for the Shreveport District has written every League President a personal letter urging the observance of March 8th as Anniversary Day.

Mr. Delila Nugent, president of the Senior Epworth League, and Miss Vonnie Rogers, both of Pineville, will be united in marriage on the evening of March the 8th. We wish these two great happiness.

Reverend James B. Grambling of Hammond taught in a specialization Institute on Recreational Methods in Southwestern University, Georgetown, Texas, and is to present the same course to the New Orleans young people in their Institute on March 8-13.

Proper Sunday School Day Observance Means Successful Conference Program

Offering Divided Equally Between District and Conference Work

In a proper observance of Sunday School Day there is set before the whole church the great Educational Task of the church in the community, the plans for accomplishing this, and the part the Sunday school has in carrying out these plans.

There will be a greater appreciation and more loyal support of the cause of Christian Education when our people realize the magnitude and fundamental importance of such a program in the local church, and the necessary support and equipment it must have to function properly to gain the desired results.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY, April 19th (or as near thereto as possible) is a special occasion for telling our people about this in a BIG way.

The offering taken should be sent to Mr. Floyd B. James, Box 742, Alexandria, La., marked 'Sunday School Day' offering.

The Conference Board of Christian Education covets your loyal cooperation in the greatest and most successful Sunday School Day observance in the history of Louisiana Methodism. AKM

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE UNIONS

The newest union of all—the Hoyt M. Dobbs union of Baton Ruoge District—held a great meeting at Zachary on March the 15th. The Field Secretary had the pleasure of attending. Miss Lillie Mae McQuaid, District Secretary and Mr. Vance McLean, Union President, are certainly filled with enthusiasm for a great union. They are planning a two day Retreat at Camp Bluff Creek for May 2, 3. The Elizabeth Langford Union in the east end of the district will join them in this project.

The North Caddo Union with Jim Means of Ida as president, and the efficient George Pearce, secretary, is marking times with progress. They

The Gilliam Hi-Leaguers, under the direction of Mrs. Reuben Douglas, presented a most attractive program for Anniversary Day. Each of the twenty-two Leaguers wore white vestments.

MORE NEWS ABOUT THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLIES

The plans for both the Louisiana Assemblies are fast being completed. Two hundred young people from Sunday schools nad Epworth Leagues through-out the conference are wanted for each. You can't afford to miss the two greatest assemblies ever held. Select delegates from your best leadership within the age groups for both assemblies.

The Young People's Assembly takes the place of the Senior Epworth League Assembly and is for those above fifteen years of age, with emphasis placed on those from 17 to 24. Dates, June 10-16.

The Hi-Assembly begins on the 17th., will be known as the Christian Adventure Course and is for those young people from 12 to 18. After a day filled with swimming, morning worship, class periods, handicraft, recreation, vesper on the lawn, and, of course three tempting meals per day, try to imagine your nite's doings in this manner:

Wednesday—A Camp Fire, Crowning of our Queen, Miss Dalton Critchlow of New Orleans.

Thursday—A Japanese Lawn Party.

Friday—An Indian Banquet.

Saturday—Stunt Nite.

Sunday — Worship, Rev. J. B. Grambling, speaker.

Monday—Around the camp-fire.

And oh! many other interesting features that we shall tell you about from time to time.

Miss Fannie Norman Heads the Eats

We have succeeded in securing the excellent services of Miss Fannie Norman of New Orleans as dietitian for both assemblies. She has had ten years of expert experience at Camp Lassa, Forbing, La., and promises the best of eats. The rates will remain the same, $1.50 per day. E. L.

EPWORTH LEAGUE PLEDGES

Epworth League Treasurers! What about those pledges? Two months ago we gave you a list of all pledges and what had been paid to date. In the May issue we will repeat this. Will your name be on the blank lines, or PAID IN FULL?

Our Conference Treasurer is ALMOST completely happy. He is busily occupied admiring a new daughter, Miss Patricia Louise, and hasn't much time to give us these days but any letter containing a check on your pledge, or an Anniversary Day Offering, gets his attention.

If you do not know what you pledged write to us, or refer to the February Bulletin. Pay now and get it off of your mind. It will make you feel better and we will be happy with you.

Two Efficiency Institutes were held in March. One in Shreveport and one in New Orleans. An expression of appreciation and thanks goes to the union officers, pastors, faculty members and each individual who contributed so willingly to the success of each institute.

On the closing evening of the Shreveport Institute Mrs. R. E. Smith conducted a very impressive devotional hour, closing with a candle service of dedication to a fuller service for Christ.

Miss Ina C. Brown of Nashville was on the faculty of the New Orleans Institute and contributed, greatly, tc its program.

CENTENARY COLLEGE FACULTY ACTIVE IN RELIGIOUS LIFE, SHREVEPORT

Shreveport, La., March 22—That the Centenary College faculty is contributing of their time and talent in a very definite way to the religious life of Shreveport is evidenced by the fact that many are leaders of well known Bible classes and engaged in other religious activities in the city. Professors Pierce Cline and J. B. Entrikin, head of the departments of History and Chemistry, respectively, at Centenary have two of the largest classes at the First Methodist Church. Professor Cline teaches the "Foster" Class and Dr. Entrikin the "Baird" Class. Dr. S. D. Morehead, head of the Department of Economics, teaches another large class at the First Methodist Church, the "Randall T. Moore" Class.

Dean R. E. Smith, head of the Department of Religious Education at Centenary, is the leader of one of the best known classes in the entire South, the "Four Square" Class. This class has an enrollment of approximately 1500. All of its services are broadcast each Sunday morning over a local station.

Other faculty members of Centenary College engaging in Sunday school work at the First Methodist Church are: Mrs. Clare Gorton, of the Music Department, Dr. Katherine Jackson French, of the English Department, and Professor Marshall Abernathy, of the Department of Mathematics. Among the members of Centenary's faculty teaching at Noel Memorial Church are Professor W. G. Phelps, head of the depratment of Classical Languages, Professor Bryant Davidson, of the department of History, and Professor A. M. Shaw, Jr., of the department of English.

Besides providing this unusual array of teachers for the Sunday school services, Centenary's faculty contributes ushers, stewards and deacons. Those serving in these capacities: Dean John A. Hardin, head of the department of Mathematics, Professor R. E. White, of the department of foreign languages, Professor W. C. Gleason, head of the department of education, Professor W. G. Phelps, already mentioned.

Centenary's contributions in the field of church music is also worthy of note. Dr. Francis Wheeler, head of the department of music, is director of the choir at St. John's Church, Dr. F. A. Dunster, professor of organ, directs the choir and is organist at the First Presbyterian Church. In the choirs of other city churches Professors Abernathy and Quattlebaum are in constant demand. Professor Quattlebaum is associate in voice in the Centenary School of Music and an internationally known radio performer. He has been proclaimed by many as the "John McCormick" of the South.

The Cosmopolitan aspect of Centenary's faculty is revealed by the fact that Professor M. U. Lively, of the department of religious education, is a Christian preacher, filling, regularly, a pulpit of that faith in the city of Shreveport.

Rev. Larry Armstrong, a former Centenary graduate, now a member of Centenary faculty, has as his duty the vitalizing and co-ordinating of all the religious activities of the college.

A report of the religious activities of the faculty of Centenary College would hardly be complete without a reference to the work, in pulpits all over this area of its president, Dr. George S. Sexton. Month after month the invitations to make addresses are far more than it is humanly possible for him to accept. The major portion of his time is devoted to his student body, but wherever he appears, before his student body, ni the pulpits of city or rural churches, before the microphone, in conventions, before civic and social organizations, the gospel of the Christian religion is his dominant theme.

NEW DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS CHILDREN'S DIVISION

The Conference Superintendent of Children's Division is happy to announce that Mrs. James Kent of Minden has accepted the office of District Superintendent of the Children's Division for the Minden District, and Mrs. J. B. Magee, of Hammond, La. has accepted the same office in the Baton Rouge District. We welcome these splendid women into our ranks and predict that the work for and with the children in their respective districts will advance in a most splendid way. Mrs. W. W. H.

MISS MILTON IN SERIES OF DISTRICT MEETINGS

Miss Jennie Milton, who will represent the Children's Division of the General Board of Christian Education at the State-Wide Conference and lead the discussions in the group for workers with children, will remain with us for the week following the Conference and be in a series of district meetings. We give below the itinerary for these visits:

We urge every Sunday school superintendent and every worker with children—and this includes parents—to select the most convenient place of meeting and be on hand.

Mrs. W. W. H.

We call your attention to the April issue of the Epworth Era. Especially the official presentation of the article entitled "The Organization of the Young People's Division in the Local Church," by Dr. J. Q. Schisler, found on page 477. Every leader who deals with our young people should read this carefully.

YOUNG PEOPLE URGED TO ATTEND ASSEMBLIES AT MANSFIELD

Much Interest and Enthusiasm Manifested; Largest Attendance Expected

The interest and enthusiasm manifested, as the Assembly dates draw near, is most encouraging. We expect to pass all previous records in attendance. Last year we totaled 375 registrations. Let's go over the 400 mark.

Young People's Assembly

The Young People's Assembly, June 10-16, will be eventful for many reasons:

Miss Lucy Foreman of Nashville will be present to instruct our conference on the new legislation of our Young People's Division.

Mr. James V. Reid of Fort Worth will be at both assemblies. He has endeared himself to Louisiana Leaguers through his music, singing and fine Christian personality.

Julia Reid is coming from Cuba.

On the first night the Methodist Church of Mansfield is presenting a three-act comedy on "The Hoo-dooed Coon." Full of laughter.

Friday night is Banquet night. Dr. George Sexton will be the speaker.

Dr. W. Angie Smith of Shreveport will deliver one platform address.

Rev. J. J. Rasmussen of Trout will be the platform speaker on two evenings.

The fine list of instructors includes the following: Doctors W. W. Drake, W. W. Holmes, Reverends J. B. Grambling, J. H. Bowden, B. C. Taylor, J. S. Henley, G. W. Pomeroy, T. F. King and others.

All young people above fifteen years of age are urged to come. Conference officers are especially wanted. Supper, June 10, is the first meal served this assembly.

Hi-Assembly

The last bulletin carried interesting news about the Hi-Assembly. Young people from 12 through 17 will register from every part of the state, beginning June 17th, lasting for six full days. Instruction in Bible, Church Study, World Friendship Methods, Handicraft, Music and Dramatics, and the other fine happenings in vesper, camp-fires, parties, banquets, etc., await those who attend.

Advanced Registration Important

Register, in advance, through your district secretary, whose name and address will be given in the programs. These programs and registration blanks will be mailed to every church within a few days. Acquaint yourself with the courses offered and become familiar with the program. Provide each delegate with linens, recreational paraphernalia, and other necessary materials, Books and notebooks will be sold at assembly. Bring your kodak, tennis racket, etc.

With mottoes, "Growing — with God," and "Friends of Jesus," we are looking for a great inspirational revival among the youth of our conference. A great program has been provided. It will be waiting for you. Unless each church does its best to have representation those promoting the assemblies have no other way of getting this training to you. Work, plan and pray for an evangelistic time among our young people.

EXTENSION SECRETARY ASSISTS PASTOR AT SIMMSPORT CHURCH

Sunday School Organized

The following extracts from a letter received from Mrs. W. D. Herrick of Simmsport gives an interesting account of the progress of the Sunday school organized by the Pastor with the assistance of Rev. A. K. McLellan, Extension Secretary. "I know you are interested, and anxious to know what progress we made. The committee met last Wednesday night, and it really surprised me, such good christian spirit, and all so willing and anxious to see the organization go over—which we did last Sunday morning. We met at the Church at 9:00 a. m. and enrolled 47 pupils. Everything has begun beautifully, so please help us to pray that this little Sunday school may bring these people together as nothing else has ever done."

Our Publishing House at Dallas cooperated in the organization of this school by furnishing the first quarter's literature, with no expense to the school.

First Returns From Sunday School Day Very Gratifying

Lake Charles, Opelousas, Checks First To Reach Treasurer

"We can always count on the loyalty and faithfulness of our pastors and Sunday school superintendents to respond liberally to a cause so worthy as that represented in the observance of Sunday School Day in the Local Church," was Brother Holmes' comment when eight checks were received within five days from April 19th. The eight schools are:

Lake Charles	$ 53.39
Opelousas	3.40
Oak Grove (Provencal)	2.00
Vivian	10.00
Gilliam	4.33
Mansfield	17.28
Dodson	2.25
Lafayette	11.82

Many of our schools are going to follow the example of these eight. There will be schools who will observe Sunday School Day at a later date, because it was not convenient for Sunday, April 19th to be set apart for this observance.

Make Sunday School Day Meaningful

In a proper observance of Sunday School Day, there is set before the whole church the great educational task of the local church in the community, and the part the Sunday School has in carrying out these plans.

The Conference Board of Christian Education covets your loyal cooperation in the greatest and most successful Sunday School Day observance in the history of Louisiana Methodism.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE UNIONS

The Young People's Secretary visited with several Unions during April. They were all well attended. The chief interest shown was concerning the assemblies and their attendance. Interesting news comes from other Unions.

Sunday, April 5, the Ever Ready Union met in Ruston. Douglas Leaguers carried off both the banners. On the 9th the Service Union met in Bastrop. Monroe and West Monroe Leaguers enjoyed a weiner roast on

COLLEGE DAY, MAY 31ST

Attention of all Local Church leaders, particularly Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents, and Epworth League Presidents is directed to the designation of the Fifth Sunday in May as COLLEGE DAY. Its observance is urged in all services of the local Church and materials for use in planning appropriate programs and services may be found in the May number of Christian Education Magazine which has been sent to all pastors in the connection.

The May numbers of certain other periodicals of the Church carry College Day articles and still other materials may be obtained by writing the Department of Schools and Colleges, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

MISS MILTON, MRS. HOLMES, CONDUCT CHILD-STUDY CONFERENCES

Miss Jennie Lou Milton of the Children's Division of the General Board of Christian Education conducted conferences for workers with children in each of the districts of our Conference. In every instance she rendered valuable service. She particularly stressed the need of more time for the religious education of children, and told how this need may, in a large measure, be met through Vacation Sessions. Suggestion for child study groups for parents and teachers met a hearty response.

Those who are interested in either of these enterprises may secure helpful literature by making your wants known to the Conference Board of Christian Education, Box 742, Alexandria, La.

Miss Milton is the author of two leaflets which every worker with children should read. They are "The Little Child and God," and "Enriching Children's Experiences through the Use of Materials." These, too, may be secured, free of charge, from the Alexandria office.—Mrs. W. W. H.

the way. May 12th the Triangle Union met at Opelousas. The "All For Christ" Union met in Ruston on the same date, as did the Sam Steele Union at Pineville. These three unions are all Hi-unions. Several unions met on the 19th. The North Caddo Union met at Vivian with 86 present. The Hoyt M. Dobbs Union met at St. Francesville with 90 present. Springhill entertained the JOY Union. The Shreveport Senior Union met on its regular date. Also the City Hi Union. They are both planning large rallies in May in interest of the Assemblies. The two New Orleans Unions met at their regular times and elected new officers. Mr. A. Hanson is Senior President and Miss Dalton Critchlow is Hi President. The Unions of Baton Rouge District are sponsoring a two day Retreat at Bluff Creek on May 2-3. Monroe District Leaguers are to have an All-day Rally at Little Creek on the 3rd. Lake Charles District is scheduled to rally at Lake Arthur in May. Minden District Leaguers will meet at Cotton Valley. The entire Alexandria District is planning a rally at Alexandria on the same date.

The Unions are all doing a wonderful work. If your Union has not reported its activities let us have your news next month.

ORGANIZING A VACATION SCHOOL

1. Decide early. The initiation of the idea may come from any interested person—the pastor, a teacher, or some other worker — but the idea must be adopted by more than one person.

The plan should be fully discussed and definitely agreed upon by the responsible official group in the Church —Workers' Council or the Local Church Board of Christian Education.

2. Develop an interest.

3. Secure workers.

4. Make definite plans in advance.

(a) Secure and study the recommended material.

(b) Collect other material.

(c) Distribute space. It is frequently possible in large churches to use space other than that used by the children on Sundays. This will necessitate a definite understanding in advance of the specific space to be used by each group, in order that equipment and other material may be in place without delay or confusion on the opening day.

In the small Church some groups will have their entire session out of doors. This sometimes necessitates the erection of temporary tables and benches in order that the best provision can be made for each group.

(d) Arrange daily schedule. Definite hours of opening and closing should be agreed upon in order that parents who bring their children or who call for them at the close of the school may understand and cooperate. The division of the time will vary with the age group, but it is probable that each daily schedule will include the following:

(1) Assembly—all together in the small school; by departments in the large school.

(2) Period of study or directed activity.

(3) Worship service.

(4) Play period.

(5) Assembly for sharing experiences of the morning, planning the next day's work, putting away material.

The large school will probably have its entire session with departments separate, as in the Sunday school. Occasional meetings of the whole school for worship and fellowship may be desirable, probably weekly. The small school will probably have its assembly, worship, and play periods together, or in two groups, separating into classes for study and group activities.

5. Plan definitely for the first day. A definite plan for enrolling the children, for finding out to which group they belong, and for enlisting their interest in plans for each group, is very important.

6. Maintaining interest and purpose. A careful record of attendance is desirable, but prizes and awards for attendance and work seem out of order.

7. Closing the school. At the close of the school it is sometimes desirable to invite parents and friends to enjoy with the children some accounts of things they have planned and done. At this time a program arranged by the children is valuable if the element of sharing rather than a showing is predominant. (Adapted).

THE HOME-STRETCH AT CENTENARY COLLEGE

1930-31 Most Successful Year

Centenary College is nearing the mid-term examinations, the last before the finals and the closing of the 1930-31 year.

From the standpoint of enrollment and of earnest work and things accomplished, the 1930-31 year will go down in the history of the old College as one of its most successful years. The total enrollment for the year is 981—658 being in the long session, and 279 for the Summer School. The increase over 1929-30 is 44, and that, too, in the year of the greatest depression of our country.

Bishop Moore Preaches to Students

The present week is a Red Letter one. Bishop Arthur J. Moore has been preaching every morning at 11:00 o'clock to the faculty and student body. The Bishop's addresses are the best for the last ten years. Great interest is shown upon the part of the students and faculty. More than 75 responded to the appeal of the Bishop at the Thursday morning service.

Famous Visitor at Centenary

Sir Herbert Brown Ames, for seven years Financial Director of the League of Nations, and for many years member of the House of Parliament of Canada, spoke to the Departments of History, Government, and Economics at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, and addressed the students and faculty Wednesday night. The encouraging feature about it was that at least half of the student body crowded into the Chapel to hear the discussion of a topic affecting World Affairs. They showed profound interest in a theme that one would not ordinarily expect college students to be sufficiently interested in to give up outside attractions for.

Commencement Program Nears Completion

The program for the Commencement Exercises has been practically completed. Dr. J. N. R. Score, Pastor of the St. Paul's Methodist Church, Houston, Texas, will deliver the Commencement Sermon Sunday morning, May 31. The Alumni and Senior Luncheon will be held Monday, June 1, at the Washington-Youree Hotel. The Annual Musical Concert will be Monday night and the Senior Play, Tuesday night, June 2. Wednesday, June 3, will be the day for the Graduating Exercises. Mr. L. A. Downs, of Chicago, Ill., President of the great Illinois Central Railway System, will deliver the Graduating Address at 10:00 o'clock. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held at 10:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 2, at the College.

CONFERENCE GOAL

"Every Sunday School observing Sunday School Day with an offering by July 1st."

Help us reach this goal. Send offering to Floyd B. James, Box 742, Alexandria, La.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO ASSEMBLE AT MANSFIELD

They're Off!! June 10-16.

In just a few days the young people of this conference will be packing their bags, tying on their tennis racket and an extra blanket, and riding off toward Mansfield to the Thirteenth Annual Assembly to be held at Mansfield College. The College is being opened and every attempt being made to entertain the large number of delegates expected to attend. The Mansfield Chamber of Commerce and the City of Mansfield have been most cordial in assisting the assembly in their preparations.

Is Your Church to be Represented?

It is most important that your church be represented. The expenses are as reasonable as can be had, but the best investment you can make in the life of a young person, both individually and for the good of your church. Your delegate should go for the good of your entire group and not merely for a vacation. Each delegate should be expected, on his return home, to bring back workable ideas for the young people's program of your church.

Use Your Delegates

Send your delegates away feeling that they go as your representatives. Have a special prayer for them in the last meeting of your group before they leave. Let them know that your prayers follow them and that you are counting on them. Give them a chance when they get back not only to report to you but to put into practice the new ideas and enthusiasm they have gotten. Many a delegate has returned home to find that the group isn't interested and that a wet blanket is thrown on his enthusiasm and new plans. Co-operate with your delegate

VACATION SESSIONS OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Vacation time is here and many parents are facing the problem of providing a wholesome occupation of that time for their children. Workers for and with children in our local churches are realizing the need of more time for religious education, and are wondering how this need may be met.

Boys and girls who have looked forward to vacation time as a period of unalloyed bliss will, before a week has passed, be saying, "Mother, I wish I had something to do."

Vacation sessions of the Church Schools will be welcomed by everyone of these groups, and here they will find a part time, satisfactory solution of their problems. Perhaps no recent movement of our General Board of Christian Education has been met with such sympathetic approval, yet many localities, because of lack of leadership and material, have hesitated in attempting Vacation sessions.

This year, for the first time, suggested programs are available and we are here listing them:

For Beginners (4 and 5 years old) —Vacation School Manual For Beginners — Danielson and Moore — Price $1.50.

For Primaries (6, 7, and 8 years old) — Guiding Religious Growth — Marie McDonald—Price 50 cents.

For Juniors (9, 10, and 11 years old)—Vacation Units for Juniors—Price 50 cents.

Two units are combined in this book, "The Land Where Jesus Lived," and "Our Church."

These issues of the Elementary Teacher have fine articles on Vacation Sessions:

A Vacation School in a One-Room Church—February issue, 1931.

The Boy Jesus (A Vacation School Unit for Juniors)—March and April issues, 1931.

RUSTON DISTRICT TRAINING WEEK—JUNE 14-26

Training Classes and Institutes To Be Held

Plans are going forward rapidly for the training classes and institutes to be held throughout the Ruston District, June 14-26. During the week of June 14-19 Institutes will be held each night of the week. The Training Classes will begin June 21st and continue through Friday, the 26th.

It is hoped to have a training class in every church in the district, and also to have the institutes centrally located where a large number of churches may come together for an inspirational meeting.

The training classes are intended to provide a definite opportunity for study in some phases of Christian Education, to develop the leadership of the local church. The program for the institutes provides a meeting that is purely inspirational and instructive, through group discussions. The Presiding Elder, Pastors, and Sunday School superintendents and Epworth League leaders are cooperating in building a program suitable to meet the needs of those expected to participate in the week of training.

HISTORY CENTENARY COLLEGE

"A Burning Torch and Flaming Fire," is the title of a charming and romantic story of Centenary College, written by Dr. Wm. Hamilton Nelson. This story is in book form. This book numbers about 400 pages, and seldom do you find a novel more interesting. Dr. Nelson, now a resident of San Francisco, California, is at his best in this book. He is a Louisianian himself, and a graduate of Centenary College. He has interpreted the life and contribution of the College as few people could do. The present edition of the book is limited, and those who wish to secure a copy had better do so at once.—W. W. H.

CARROLLTON AVENUE CONGREGATION HONORS MR. J. H. CARTER

Rev. H. L. Johns, Pastor, Plans Unique "Recognition" Service

In a "Sunday School Day" service whose theme was Recognition, a most fitting program was given whereby "Happy recognition was made of the magnificent contribution in life and service of Mr. John H. Carter, now in his twenty-fifth year as Superintendent of this great department of our church. We take this simple means of showing appreciation, knowing that numbers of friends and workers, parents and pupils 'rise up to call him blessed'."

Each department was represented in a recognition of Sunday school work. The Local Church Board of Christian Education was represented by Mr. L. E. Cox. The pastor, Rev. H. L. Johns, spoke on "Channels of Sunday School Service."

For the promotion of Christian Education in the Louisiana Conference an offering of $100.00 was given.

YOUNG PEOPLE ASSEMBLE

and the best possible returns will be felt by each of you in this, the most important of all assemblies.

First Assembly Closes On June 16

On noon of June the 16th the Young Pepole's Assembly closes and the delegates return home. The cars that come to Mansfield for them might bring the Hi-Leaguers or Intermediate-Senior young people for the Hi-Assembly that opens on the 17th. For those who come early, or arrive before noon of the 17th, extra meals may be had at 35c by notifying the registrar before eleven o'clock of that day. Guests who bring delegates may eat in the dining room at 50c per meal, if the registrar is notified in advance.

Closing June 23

The Hi Assembly closes on June 23rd. The last meal is served at the noon hour. For the first time the Christian Adventure Course will be presented and Christian Adventure Credits will be given those earning credit. Bring your Christian Culture Hi-League Credits, if you have as many as four, and receive a Christian Adventure Diploma.

Come, looking for a great time. Bring along a sunny disposition, an open mind, your Bible, recreational paraphernalia, kodak, and tell your folks you'll be most too busy to write long letters but that you'll be all o. k. with that fine crowd awaiting you.

June issue, 1931.

The Beginner in the Vacation School—July issue, 1931.

Children's Play—July issue, 1931.

In addition to these we have worked out the following units in detail, and will be glad to share them with those who are planning Vacation Sessions:

1. "The Little Child and God."
2. "The Boyhood of Jesus."
3. "God's Gift of Food."
4. "Friends."
5. "The Land Where Jesus Lived."

Nos. 2, 3, and 4 are for primaries, and your left over "Beginner Stories" and "Primary Stories" will furnish valuable material for these and make a wide use of what we have so often considered wasted.—Mrs. W. W. H.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS URGED TO ATTEND LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS THIS SUMMER

We are very happy to share with the workers for and with children in Louisiana Conference a recent communication from Miss Skinner, concerning Children's Work in the Leadership schools this summer:

"The following courses, as well as others to which I do not refer specifically, will be of interest and value to all.

At Mount Sequoyah—

"Children's Work in the Local Church," Miss Jennie Lou Milton (1st and 2nd terms).

"Nature Study," Mrs. Clay E. Smith (2nd term).

"Principles of Teaching," Mrs. Clay E. Smith (2nd term).

At Lake Junaluska—

"Children's Work in the Local Church," Miss Freddie Henry (1st and 2nd terms).

"Principles of Teaching," Miss Barnett Spratt (1st and 2nd terms).

"Child Study" (advanced course for all age groups), Miss Elizabeth Harris (2nd term).

There will also be a daily non-credit conference hour for all workers interested in the entire program of the church, which of course will include some discussion of children's work, district work, and conference work. There will be informal conference hours on particular problems such as vacation schools and other forms of expanded program."

We have long since learned that a vacation does not mean "doing nothing" but does mean "A change of occupation." No more delightful vacation place could be found for parents and teachers than that offered by these Leadership Schools where

LEADER'S TRAINING WORK— KOREAN METHODIST CHURCH

For a long time Mr. Pyun was head of the Department of Leader's Training Work; but after the re-organization, when he was given particular charge of the curriculum, he thought it would be hard for him to continue as department head because he would not have time to teach the classes nor do the necessary traveling. Hence it fell to the general secretary to do this work.

Standards of Institutes

We have been thinking there should be a standard for training institutes. The general secretary is now engaged in working out a plan to present to the next general board meeting for adoption. As this new standard is almost the same as the former one, there is no special difficulty; but instead of seven courses we are planning for twelve. As for the titles and details, they must be decided at the general board meeting; and so I shall not say anything particular here. Because the new standard is not especially different, we have been conducting this year's work on the old standard. As we said above, these classes were all well attended, better than ever before.

Opportunities in Training Classes

As for the leader's training classes, there are two opportunities for teaching; first: in the leader's training institute of religious education, and second: in a few classes in connection with the district Bible classes. The district superintendents and the general secretary, having consulted together, prepared the Bible study and religious education classes together, and gave liberty of choice to the students; and so as a rule every student could take one or two courses in religious education besides the Bible course. I thought the arrangement was excellent and hope hereafter to continue it because: (1) it gives a convenient opportunity to the students to take both kinds of study without going to two different institutes. (2) It greatly decreases expenses for us both. (3) It adds to the pleasure and profit of the students to have a wider range of subjects, and (4) greatest of all, to my mind, it makes a strong bond between our board and the district superintendents and the local church people. Of course we shall stress the special training institutes as before, but in the future we wish to stress more than before the combined work with the Bible classes in order to strengthen the close contact with the districts. The course in the special training classes is just the same; and so there is no problem as to the curriculum; but for those who attend, it kills two birds with one stone.

During the past three months we held 11 special training institutes; 6 in connection with Bible institutes; total day attendance 1158; night attendance 3770; certificates granted 659.

Earning Certificates

I wish to say a word about the certificates. At one of the institutes two students did not take the examination, thinking they would receive certificates simply on the basis of their attendance. But we had decided that only those who passed the examination should receive certificates, and so these two students did not receive theirs when the others were given out. They came to me about it, and finally asked if they could be given an examination. We were glad to give them a special opportunity. They received their certificates and went home happy. We believe this gives a value to the certificates which could not be created if they were given indiscriminately to everyone who attended.

Lastly, we hope in the future to have only students come who have a real purpose to prepare themselves for Christian service, even though their number may be few, rather than to have many who have no aim to acquire an education. We believe the success of our church greatly depends on an educated people.

instruction will be given, by men and women who are devoting their lives to the religious education of boys and girls. The association with these leaders and other like minded men and women will bring unsurpassed inspiration.—Mrs. W. W. H.

MANSFIELD ASSEMBLY

"Mansfield Assembly,
Where we learn to work and play.
Mansfield Assembly,
Where we learn to watch and pray.
So let us make this Assembly
A place of love and cheer,
Where we may learn to live for Christ
Through-out the coming year."

The above song was written and set to music by the song leader, Mr. James V. Reid of Fort Worth, Texas, who was at the 1930 assemblies and will be with the young people again this summer. This song means much to those who attended last year and will again be the Assembly song this summer. Learn the words, if you are coming.

Methodist Young People Annual Assembly Is Held

Miss Foreman Tells About Thirteenth Session at Mansfield from June 10 to 16.

(By Miss Lucy Foreman)

If you could know what you missed by not being there, you would begin to plan right now to come next year —that is, you would if you are a young person. Some of us adults were fortunate enough to be asked to come to lead in discussions, to act as chaperones, or as leaders of recreation.

How those days, June 10-16, did fly! Of course it is the Young People's Assembly in its thirteenth annual session at Mansfield that is referred to.

The morning watch service, led by the best beloved Miss Julia Reid, started the day. Practically 100 per cent of the young people met in the auditorium for these services each morning. Then came breakfast at 7:30, and such breakfasts! Not only the young people, but the adult leaders waited for the dining room doors to open as if they had been on restricted diets for a month or two. Appetites could not be wondered at when the most excellent food, prepared under the supervision of Miss Fannie Norman of New Orleans is taken into account.

At 8:15 the Bible and mission classes met. At 9:05 the whole group met in the auditorium and discussed a unified program for the young people of their churches, and the organization through which this program can be carried out in the most effective way.

At 9:45 the life problems' classes met. A recess period of twenty minutes followed. Instantly groups of boys and girls out in the open taking kodak pictures, at ball, or archery practice, or in competitive games under the direction of the ever ready, ever knowing just what to suggest, Mr. J. B. Grambling. Back at 10:55 to the methods' classes, and then into the business sessions from 11:45 to 12:20. No abler gavel handler has ever presided than Charles White, president.

The dinner bell rang at 12:30. However, the ringing was wasted energy, everyone knew the time whether a watch was carried or not. While waiting for the room doors to open, songs, started seemingly without effort, filled the air. During the meal calls for "sing a song," "play a tune," were responded to by Mr. James V. Reid, Mrs. O. E. Madden and others. These were allowed by rounds and general singing of old assembly favorites. Regardless of the almost constant singing, the food disappeared.

An hour's quiet followed dinner, then the afternoon was free. District meetings were held, plans for the Saturday stunt night were made, as well as preparations for the lovely balloon banquet on Friday evening.

In and through it all, everywhere, seemingly at the same time were Miss Elizabeth Langford, Mr. J. B. Grambling, Mr. James V. Reid, and the pastor host, Rev. Guy M. Hicks. Never were there more cordial town hosts than the Mansfield people proved to be. Flowers were in every room, placed there by the members of the Woman's Missionary Society. Later, these ladies came on a round of visits, bringing candies, fruit and cakes for every room. The Chamber of Commerce provided the cars to make a Sunday afternoon ride possible for the whole assembly. This ride included a visit to Dr. Sam Steel, whom the assembly delighted to honor.

After supper each evening the vesper hour, under the leadership of different young people was held. Probably at no time did the group come nearer to God. There was the greatest sense of freedom upon the part of those giving their experience, a knowledge that they were talking to others who know and understand a Father's love and care.

After an evening given to recreation or to a platform hour, the whole group assembled "under the lights." Songs were sung, and then a dozen prayer circles, each with a leader, were formed. At the close, two by two, singing, "Come Into My Heart, Lord Jesus," or some other favorite, back to their rooms they went. At the sounding of taps at 10:40 every light was out.

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE ANNUAL ASSEMBLY HELD

There were certain high spots even during these days when every hour was filled with good things. One of these high spots was the visit of Bishop Dobbs on Monday. The bishop was enthusiastically cheered as he entered the dining room. He made a most excellent after dinner speech. As a member of the board of Christian education and as chairman of the committee of the department of the local church. Bishop Dobbs said that he felt very closely connected with the work being done at the assembly.

The communion service held at 7:30 Sunday morning at the Mansfield church will be remembered as one of the most impressive occasions of the assembly. There was, and still is, sadness in the hearts of those attending the assembly, Miss Elizabeth Langford, who has been giving her full time to the work with the young people of the Louisiana conference, after September 1, will give up her field work. She has been so untiring in the giving of herself, so dynamic in her personality, that all of the young people feel this is a keen loss. However, she will be in Monroe, La., and will still give a part of her time to correspondence, and to letters in the Bulletin. Her heart and prayers will be with the young people of the State just as they have always been, and she says, "By God's help, the work goes on."

It was a real privilege for the group to have with them during the week, Dr. W. W. Holmes, executive secretary of the conference board of Christian education.

On Tuesday at noon the assembly closed. No one said good-bye, but the call back was, "See you 1932," so begin now to get ready to come.

HI ASSEMBLY

The third and best Hi Assembly held at Mansfield College June 16-23, 1931, was beautifully climaxed on Monday night with a Consecration Service conducted by Rev. Jas. B. Grambling. At this service 176 of Louisiana's choicest Young People joined hands in a circle, pledging not to defile themselves, and determining to walk the other step with Jesus Christ as their Friend and Leader. About fifteen of this number volunteered for full-time separated service in various fields.

From the rising bell in the early morning till taps sounded for quiet and rest at night each moment was filled with something interesting and worth-while The Morning Watch Services were inspiring; the classes were instructive; the dining hours were used as a time for yells, pep songs, gospel choruses, etc; the afternoons were taken for dramatics, handicraft and directed recreation of every form; the Vesper Services were high hours spent in songs, prayers and testimonies; the platform hours, camp fire ceremonials and banquet were all outstanding events of the assembly. Mr. T. W. Holloman of Alexandria was the banquet speaker on Saturday night.

"There is no way to explain the real joy and value of the Assembly". This is the sense of the testimony from every delegate. The finest spirit of Christian fellowship was prevalent throughout the entire time. Rev. D. F. Anders, the Dean of the Assembly was untiring in his efforts, making the Assembly successful from every standpoint.

A great day seems to be just ahead for Louisiana Methdism when this large number of her people, with the dew of the morning still sparkling in their lives, so unreservedly dedicate themselves for service.

The following were elected to serve as Assembly officers for 1932: Pearl Hattic, President; Leroy Roland, Vice-President; Elizabeth McCain, Secretary; Rev. Guy M. Hicks, Dean.

COMMENCEMENT AT McDONELL FRENCH MISSION SCHOOL

The McDonell French Mission School has just closed out a very successful scholastic year.

On Sunday morning, May 24th, in the auditorium of the Houma First Methodist Church, Dr. D. B. Raulins, pastor of the Algiers Methodist Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. With the entire student body occupying the central tier, the large gathering filled all remaining space within the church. Dr. Raulins gained and held the interest of all present, while he very ably endeavored to drive home a common sense message that could wisely be used by the entire congregation.

On Tuesday night of May 26th, in the same auditorium, the commencement exercises proper were held.

A piano solo, two choruses by the student body, one chorus by the girls, and one chorus by the boys constituted the musical program. In behalf of the school, Manny Barrios welcomed the gathering in a well thought out address, after which Mrs. J. A. Pharr of Morgan City told of her interest in the school and reviewed the past accomplishments of the institution in the community.

The principal address was made by Prof. N. P. Mitchell, Jr., of the Louisiana State University. Rev. B. H. Andrews then distributed such awards and certificates as were earned by the students.

In the afternoon of Thursday, May 28th, an outdoor festival was held on the grounds of the school, beginning with the exhibition of the Evangeline Room and articles made and products grown by members of the student body. At four o'clock the platform program began with the dramatization of the parable of the Good Samaritan. Then again the musical talent of the students was put to a test when the operetta entitled "Mellilotte" was presented. The presentation was really remarkable considering the fact that not one of the participants could have been above twelve years of age.

The following day, Friday, the school year of 1930-31 was declared at an end and the students made their way happily home.

Young People's Mission Special In Action

By Ina Corinne Brown

Let's imagine we have a giant airplane and can follow our missionary money as it goes around the world. Of course the Young People's Mission Special is a part of the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise which serves all ages but since we are young people we shall be particularly interested in the help that our money gives to other young people.

Europe

Our first stop will be in Europe where we shall visit Belgium, Poland, and Czechoslovakia. Here we shall find our money doing two very definite things—first paying the salary and expenses of a man who gives his time to creating and directing a program of Christian education and, second paying for the creation or translation and printing of literature. We take for granted our own literature and the help we get from Central Office and from our Conference workers. We forget that in most of the mission fields there is no Central Office, no Conference workers, and practically no literature. Many young people's groups have only a Bible and a hymn book to guide them and since they usually lack the background of Christian training they are even more handicapped than we would be under such circumstances.

Africa

Now our big ship is landing in the heart of Africa in the Belgian Congo. How many things our money is doing here and how much more is needed! Here are hundreds of boys and girls in school—the first time in their lives that school has been possible. Here is the Bible school where young preachers and teachers are trained to go out into villages to start churches and schools. Then here are hospitals where for the first time hundreds of people are in reach of a doctor. And here is the nursery for orphan babies and the leper colony where new life and hope comes to those who otherwise would be hopeless outcasts.

China, Korea and Japan

We make a long jump to the Orient where our first stop is in China. Here our money helps to carry on a program of Christian education and also has a part in the maintenance of the general work of the Board of Missions. In Korea and Japan a program of Christian education and the creation and printing of literature plays an important part. If we talk to the young people in these countries they will tell us very

Childhood and Youth Week

To Be Observed the Third Week in October or as Near Thereto as Practicable

This is not a time for displaying the accomplishments of our children and young people, but it is a time for the adult membership of the church to come together to seriously consider the religious needs of our boys and girls and to make definite plans for meeting these needs.

The Conference Board of Christian Education has mailed to every Sunday School Superintendent in the Conference abundant material for this observance. It includes a beautiful poster "Child Study" which should be prominently displayed in every church, it includes a leaflet which tells the meaning and purpose of the observance, gives a program for the entire week, and adds a list of books and periodicals which have particular value for those who are interested in a study of boys and girls; it also includes a pageant which carries a very fine message and can easily be put on by even the smallest church.

Watch THE WORKERS' COUNCIL, and THE ELEMENTARY TEACHER for thought provoking articles concerning this observance.—Mrs. W. W. Holmes.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION OF OUR CHILDREN

Discipline, Paragraph 468

"In cooperation with the Local Church Board of Christian Education and the Sunday School Council, the Woman's Missionary Society may organize groups in the children's division for specific Missionary Education and Training, with the consent of the Pastor."

Our fundamental conviction is that missionary education is at the heart of Christian education; that otherwise no program of Christian education has a right to be called Christian; that so long as the Church provides a program of Christian education paralleled by a program of missionary education, the latter will occupy the position of an appendage, and both will suffer. Acting upon this conviction and attempting to interpret what was certainly the underlying principle of the legislation of 1930, the staff of the Children's Division is examining critically all of its program mat-

CONFERENCE GOAL

"Every Sunday School observing Sunday School Day with an offering by October 1st."

Help us reach this goal. Send offering to Floyd B. James, Box 742, Alexandria, La.

S. O. S. Appeal

By W. W. Holmes,
Executive Secretary

The Board of Christian Education has no other source of revenue except the Sunday School Day offering, the Fourth Sunday Missionary offering, and the small apportionment from the Conference Collections.

We appreciate the Sunday School Day offernigs as shown on page 3 of this bulletin. We earnestly request those schools which have not yet observed the day to do so at their earliest possible convenience. A Sunday School Day offering from all the schools in Louisiana in the next 30 days would save your Board much embarrassment.

The Missionary interests of our Conference are greatly in need of an enlarged Fourth Sunday offering for Missions.

Our whole church, in all her connectional interests, is involved in our Conference Collections this fall. Every preacher and every member should put forth every effort to raise the Conference Assessments in full. God help us to do our best.

ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT WORKERS PLAN INSTITUTES AND TRAINING WEEK

September 27—October 10

The Presiding Elder, Dr. A. S. Lutz, and the District Secretary of Christian Education, Rev. D. B. Boddie, are planning a series of Institutes during the week of September 27-October 2, to be followed by local training schools and classes in every local church, enlisting all workers, the week of October 4-10. The Institutes and Training Classes are to be held at night each week, because it is believed larger attendance may be expected at night services.

The program for both Institutes and Training Schools will be announced at a later date.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSION SPECIAL

quickly how much they need inspiration and training such as we get in our Institutes and Assemblies. Our money will help make such training possible and the church of tomorrow in these lands will be a finer, stronger church because of a trained leadership.

Brail, Mexico and Cuba

Now we take the long journey from the Orient to Brazil, then up through Mexico and into Cuba. If we ask the young people of these Latin American countries what their needs are the answers will be strangely alike, and strangely similar to what we heard in Europe and the Orient—literature, a full time secretary to help in organization and training, Institutes and Assemblies where groups may come together for training and inspiration! Our gifts will help make these things possible and we shall have the privilege of sharing with youth around the world.

Paine College

Our ship now heads homeward for a stop in Augusta, Georgia, where, at Paine College, Negro young people are being trained for places of leadership among their own people. The school is jointly supported by our own church and the Colored Methodist Church. What could be more fitting than that white young people of the South should share with the Negro youth in our midst.

Our Own Conference Extension Program

Our ship now brings us back to our own Conference for almost half of our gifts come back to carry on a program of extension within the bounds of our own Conference. When we remember that half of the people in the United States belong to no church and that four out of five persons are receiving no religious instructions whatsoever we realize that our own country is a mission field and we are glad to have a share in reaching neglected areas in our own Conference.

A small part of our money helps to carry on the program of missionary education of our General Board of Christian Education. So truly our giving goes round the world and helps to make Christ known throughout the whole earth! Where could we find a more worthy enterprise in which to invest!

THE LOCAL CHURCH BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Important Place in the Work of the Local Church

One of the most vital factors in the success of the program of Christian Education in the Local Church is the organization and proper functioning of the Local Church Board of Christian Education. The purposes for which all efforts have been made for months will fail of realization if this group in the local church called for in the organization of a Local Church Board of Christian Education is not organized, and conscientiously working to make a vital directing force in the work of the local church.

Its membership should be made up of the best qualified persons available in the local church. They should be vitally religious, interested in and acquainted with the Educational work of the church. They should be able and willing to give reasonably of their time and work, and to continue to study the work of Christian Education.

The purpose of the Local Church Board of Christian Education is one of supervision. Its responsibility rests in the supervision of the total educational task of the Local Church.

In order for the work of unifying the educational program in the local church to move forward successfully and uniformly the Local Church Board of Christian Education must see that every division of the local church progresses orderly, and, as one in the assumption and use of the processes of Christian Education through the channels now provided for in the present legislation.

In the eyes of the pastor this Board should become an ally for the all important work for which he is responsible. For the first time in the history of the church, it provides the pastor with the machinery for bringing together in this one Board those persons responsible for the various aspects of the work of the church.

The Local Church Board of Christian Education must be set to work in every church if Southern Methodism is to meet the challenge of the hour.

MAINTAINING MISSIONARY PROGRAM THROUGH OFFERINGS

The Young People's Mission Special is a part of the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise but it is distinctly a Young People's Special in that the young people themselves decide how much they wish to give and they collect and handle their part of the fund until such time as it is sent by their own Conference Young People's Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer of the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.

Pledge Should Be Made

Each Department in the Young People's Division of the local church should make a pledge to the Young People's Special. (A Department includes young people of both Sunday school and Epworth League). Each person in the Department should make an individual pledge to be paid on the Department pledge. These payments should be made weekly or monthly. In addition to the individual pledges the Department may under special conditions use on its pledge the regular Fourth Sunday offering made by the young people at Sunday school. These special conditions are (1) The Department must be completely organized under one of the three plans of organization approved by the General Board, (2) The total pledge of the Department must be at least as large as the former combined giving for missions of the young people of the Sunday school and of the Epworth League.

Prompt Remittance

Immediately following the Fourth Sunday the Treasurer of the Department sends to the Conference Young People's Treasurer all money on hand which has been given for the Young People's Mission Special. If the fourth Sunday offering of the young people is included the Department Treasurer gives to the Treasurer of the Church School a statement of the amount of the Fourth Sunday offering from the Department. Special remittance books for use of Department Treasurers may be had free from Conference headquarters or from the Young Pepole's Division at 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tennessec.—INA. C. BROWN.

THE SUPERINTENDENT

As a result of the new legislation the scope of the work of the superintendent has been enlarged and his responsibilities increased. Instead of being superintendent of one agency within the church, he is superintendent of the total educational work of the church. We have come to think of the educational work of the church not only as instruction but rather as a program for the guidance of persons into effective Christian living. For these increased responsibilities there are certain qualifications which seem to be essential for a successful superintendent:

1. He should be vitally religious in his own personal life. The spirit and attitude of the superintendent will be reflected in the attitudes of his workers and in the life of the school.

2. He should be familiar with the new legislation and the literature which is being prepared by the General Board of Christian Education. Because of the importance of his work, he should avail himself of every opportunity of taking training courses in training schools, by correspondence and otherwise.

3. He should be willing to give the necessary time to plan carefully with his assistants an effective program of Christian education and supervise the carrying out of this program.

4. Above all, he should have a passion for the work of Christian education which will fire his own heart and inspire in his workers an intelligent enthusiasm for effective guidance of persons in Christian living.—Superintendents Conference, Mt. Sequoyah, July, 1931.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION OF OUR CHILDREN

erial and recommendations with the view of making adequate provision for missionary education in the main stream of material provided for all the children of all the churches. The following summary will indicate the large place missions and allied subjects already have in the regular lesson material.

Closely Graded Lessons

a. Missions: 72 lessons have missions as major or secondary emphasis.

b. World Friendliness and Peace: 112 lessons have the idea of world friendliness and peace as the major emphasis, with about 26 others where it is the secondary emphasis.

c. The Social Message of the Gospel: 93 teaching units give this major attention, while 70 teaching units give this idea secondary emphasis. (This does not include those lessons in which major emphasis is upon temperance, peace, and missionary work.)

d. Evangelism and Church Loyalty: 166 lessons from the beginner, primary, and junior courses give some special attention to church loyalty.

Group Graded Lessons

The Primary and Junior Group Lessons also are rich in missionary material. In Junior Lessons for 1931 there are twenty lessons in which the missionary idea is uppermost and three others where it is given secondary emphasis.

Additional missionary material is found in the Elementary Teacher and in the children's story paper, Boys and Girls.

It is to be regretted that at this time of emphasis upon a unified program a dual organization in the Children's Division of the Local Church, with a consequent multiplicity of office-holding for workers, division of time and interest for children, and a perpetuation of the idea that missionary education is separate and apart from Christian education, continues. It is the purpose of the Children's Division to make missions a vital and integral part of all its work. In this effort we are seeking the fullest cooperation of the children's workers in the Board of Missions.

The above is taken from Miss Skinner's annual report to the General Board of Christian Education.—Mrs. W. W. Holmes

VARIED COURSE OF STUDY OFFERED AT CENTENARY

Ancient and Modern Languages Comprehensively Covered by College

Centenary College offers a comprehensive course of study in both ancient and modern languages according to Professor W. G. Phelps, who has for a number of years been the head of the department of classical languages and literature.

Besides the beginning courses in Latin, including grammar, reading, and composition, there are many advanced courses including Virgil, Cicero's de Senectute, Odes of Horace, Livy, Cicero's Letters, Aqulieus, Juvenal. He offers also some courses in classical literature, which are intended for those who are not interested in the study of ancient languages, but who desire a knowledge of the literary content of the classics. These courses include: Mythology, Greek Tragedy in English, Roman poets, Oriental and Greek History, Roman History.

Professor Phelps took his A. B. degree from Oberlin College, his A. M. from Princeton, and pursued further graduate study in the Universities of Chicago and Michigan. Also, he has spent two periods of study and travel in Europe, the last of which was during the summer of 1929 when he was a student in the American Academy at Rome. During this summer he made an extensive tour of Greece and Italy, visiting practically all of the famous shrines of classical antiquity.

In the departments of French and Spanish, the courses are taught by Dr. E. L. Ford, Professor R. E. White, and Miss Mary Frances Young. Doctor Ford, head of the Modern Language Department, took his A. B. and A. M. degrees from Howard University and afterwards spent and took his doctor's degree from the Sorbonne. Doctor Ford speaks French with perfection, has a broad knowledge of the literature of France, upon which subject he is frequently invited to lecture.

Professor White, associate professor of Spanish, took his A. B. and A. M. degrees from Emory University, and during the past summer pursued graduate study in the National University of Mexico at Mexico City. Profesor White is active in promoting an interest in El Club Castellano, a Spanish club, the purpose of which is to stimulate an interest in spoken Spanish, and to acquaint its membership with Spanish life, customs, and institutions. A similar club, Le Cerlce Francais, exists for the benefit of French students.

Miss Mary Frances Young, instructor in modern languages, assists with the work in both French and Spanish. She is a graduate of Centenary, and has taken graduate work in languages at the University of Colorado. Miss Young has been, during the past summer, attending Sorbonne University, Paris, and will return in time to take up her duties at the college.

The following courses are offered by Centenary: Gebinning French, Intermediate French, Advanced French, Moliere, Racine, Voltaire, contemporary French novels, early French novel, the romantic novel, the modern novel, elementary Spanish, Intermediate Spanish, Advanced Spanish, Spanish conversation, commercial Spanish, Spanish novel and drama, Cervantes, Modern Spanish, a survey of Spanish literature, and other advanced courses in Spanish.

Centenary offers a number of courses in German for the special benefit of those who may intend to work toward a graduate degree.

Vol. I ALEXANDRIA, LA., OCTOBER, 1931 No. 10

ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT INSTITUTES AND TRAINING WEEK, OCT. 11-16; 18-23

Training Classes and Institutes are to Be Held.

Dr. A. S. Lutz, Presiding Elder, and Rev. D. B. Boddie, District Secretary, announce plans have been completed for the Institutes and Training Classes to be held throughout the district October 11-23. During the week of October 11-16 Institutes will be held each night of the week beginning at 7:30 p. m. The Training Classes will begin October 18 and continue through Friday, October 23.

It is hoped to have a Training Class in every church in the district and also to have the institutes centrally located where a large number of churches may come together for an inspirational meeting.

The Training Classes are intended to provide a definite opportunity for study iu some phases of Christian education, to develop the leadership of the local church. The program for the institutes provides a meeting that is purely inspirational and instructive, through group discussions.

Every local church is urged to help make these meetings a success. Urge every member to attend the nearest institute and to enroll in the local training class.

SUPPLEMENTARY MISSIONARY MATERIAL, CHILDREN'S WORK

From the Children's Division of the General Board of Christian Education comes some very fine news: Supplementary material for the missionary educatino of our children is being prepared for the use of the workers for and with children and it is free. There will be five sets of pictures as follows:

Children of the Orient.

Children of the Home Land.

Children of Europe.

Children of Africa.

Children of Latin America.

The first set, "Children of the Orient," is now available. Order your set immediately. There is no cut and dried plan for their use, but the wide awake teacher will find many uses for them. The teacher of children who does not use pictures is neglecting one of her best tools.

Order fro mThe Service Department, Children's Division, General Board of Christian Education, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.—Mrs. W. W. Holmes.

CONFERENCE YOUNG PEOPLE'S OFFICERS MEET IN ALEXANDRIA, LA., SEPTEMBER 19-20

The officers of the Young People's Conference of the Young People's Division held their first meeting for the current year, 1931-32, at Alexandria, La., September 19-20.

The following officers were present:

Elizaheth Langford, Field Secretary.

Charles N. White, President.

Anna Pharr Turner, Vice-President.

Katherine Fish, Secretary.

Harold Riggs, Treasurer.

Douglas Page, Assistant Treasurer.

Miss Mary Searles, Publicity Agent.

District Secretaries:

Aileen Hyslop, Alexandria.

Lillie Mae McQnaid, Baton Rouge.

Ethelee Neill, Minden.

Onar Perry, Monroe.

Iris McGarr, New Orleans.

Wallace White, Ruston.

Pauline Rodgers, Shreveport.

The officers were very interested about the uew program, and all were eager to ask questions about it.

From the reports of the District Secretaries, we found tbat quite a few churches within the State had organized their Young People's Division under the new plan, and others are working toward setting up the new plan in their churches as soon as they can. Great interest and enthusiasm is heing shown by the young people, and with the help of the pastors and Sunday school superintendents we will soon have every church within the State working toward establishing this new plan in their Young People's Division.

Rev. A. K. McLellan explained the monthly Missionary Report hlank for remitting the missionary offerings each month. The Department Treasurer's Record and Remittance Book for the Local Church was also explained. It was urged that all local church treasurers use the proper blank in making remittances to the Conference Treasurer of Young People's Work.

The Conference feels the need of a full-time Young People's Worker in the field and we are urged to make our Conference Promotion pledge as large as possible so that we will be able to put a Young People's Secretary back in the ficld without delay.

Stress was put on the sharcs that we hought at the Assembly tbis summer for the Home and Foreign Mission Enterprise. We are urged to pay these, and huy more if possible. We would like to have these independent of the Sunday school offering.

Epworth Era will be combined with the High Road, making just one magazine. This magazine will still sell for the price of the Era, $1.00 per year if in clubs of five or more going to one address; $1.25 for individual subscriptions. Miss Langford urged that we renew our subscriptions, and those who are not now subscribers, send in their subscriptions as soon as possible.

At the close of the meeting, the President, Mr. Charles N. White, presented a plan for a Moral Crusade among the Young People of Louisiana. Every officer was heartily in favor of this move toward bettering the morals of the youth of today. Miss Langford made motion that a cooperative effort among the young people of all Evangelical Churches be planned, and that an invitation meeting of the Executive Committees of Young People's work of all denominations be called to discuss plans for such a movement.

ORGANIZATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION

A Review of the Many Points in How to Proceed from "The Young People's Division in the Small Church"

1. Be much in prayer. Try to catch a vision of the possibilities for your young people under a great, unified program of Christian Education designed just for young people.

2. Study pamphlets on organization carefully. Read pamphlets Nos. 200 and 202. Talk things over with the young people, the pastor, the general superintendent, the teachers of Young People's classes, and the Epworth League president and counselor. If in doubt, confer with Conference Young People's Secretary or write to Director of Young People's Division, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

3. Call a mass meeting of all young people from 12 through 23 years of age. Do not be content to have just those who belong to the church, Sunday school, or Epworth League. Bring in every young person for whom your church is responsible.

4. At this mass meeting organization "The Young People's Division of the ..... Church" and elect officers. Let it be understood:

a. That the Young People's Division includes all young people from 12 through 23 and all meetings of young people within that age range.

b. That the Young People's Division meets at the Sunday school hour as Sunday school classes, and on Sunday afternoon or evening as Epworth League, and that it may also meet during the week for recreation and other activities.

c. That the officers elected for the Young People's Division are the officers in charge whenever the division meets.

5. Set up the Young People's Division Council.

6. Decide on the number of standing committees.

7. Elect a chairman for each standing committee.

8. Divide the entire membership of the young people among these standing committees.

9. Proceed with Sunday school class meetings, the Epworth League meeting, and weekday meetings and carry out the great objectives of the Young People's Division.

10. Apply for charter. Report your organization to your Young People's Secretary, Box 742, Alexandria, La. E. L.

CENTENARY COLLEGE NEWS

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 24.—Because of the plan of Centenary College to accept produce from framers as payment for their sons' tuitio nand fees, six husky, ambitions youths have been enabled to attend Centenary this year.

Four of the boys are from the immediate vicinity, while one is from Ida, and another from Bonita, La. Several of the six are trying for places on the freshman football team, and all are thankful to the person whose suggestion to the college faculty made their attendance possible.

One cent above the market prices is allowed by Centenary on cotton and the market price is paid on all other produce.

"Through this plan no one will suffer loss and six boys, at the end of the year will be the richer by a year of college life and contacts," said George Reynolds, secretary of the faculty.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

One of the surest causes and signs of old age is the conclusion by those who have reached their thirties that they can no longer learn, that the days of their education are over What a tragedy that so many have made terms with time, and have resigned themselves to premature mental decay. They adopt the slogan, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks," thus betraying evidence of their early decline by overlooking the two unmistakable errors in it. We are not "dogs," and education is something vastly more than "tricks."

Etate education is taking note of the possibilities for education to be found in the adult life of the community, and is seeking to stamp out illiteracy among those who have already reached their "majority." Can our church afford to overlook a matter that is enjoying increased attention at the hands of the state? Is there less of vitality in Christian education. Does not Christian education enjoy a place of peculiar strategy at this point? The church school has in its care and under its tutelage the whole of life from birth to death. It is rightly assumed that human life should be responsive to the religious educational process through the whole of life.

Our church, in its Unified Program of Christian Education, has taken careful notice of the place of adults in Christian education. One of the three great divisions is the Adult Division. For adults the organization, materials and methods will naturally vary and be adapted to adult years; but in no sense will they be less educational than in the other divisions.

Let not our adults overlook the responsibility and the corresponding opportunity they have by virtue of the well deserved influence they have as adults. The attitude they assume regarding the program of the church inevitably reflects itself in the other divisions of the church. That being the case their position is an occasion for soberness and gratitude. Ever must it be true that childhood and youth can enter only such doors as are opened to them by adults. Furthermore this responsibility to the young offers the greatest outlet for the service of adults and the greatest safeguard to their own spirit of daring and sacrificial adventure.

D. B. RAULINS.

CAPT. THOMPSON CONDUCTS SUNDAY SCHOOL AT PILOT TOWN

During the past summer it was my privilege and pleasure to conduct a few Sunday school services at the Pilot Station at South Pass, La., where the families of some of the Pilots were spending a few weeks of vacation.

There were ten children and a few adults present, representing three different denominations and four churches, but all interested in the same God and the same Saviour.

Contrary to my expectations and intentions, a collection was insisted upon by the children and its disposition left to me.

After consulting with some of the children it was decided that, as our Sunday school services had given us so much pleasure and, as there are so many other children in Louisiana who would enjoy Sunday school privileges if they had them, we would send our collection to you to use in your Sunday School Extension work.

Enclosed herewith you will find a money order for the amount of our collections, $2.25.

H. J. THOMPSON.

The New Orleans district leads the other districts in the amount of Sunday School Day Offerings. The total to date is $350.67.

JULY, AUGUST, SEPTEMBER EXTENSION SECRETARY

From June 28 to July 10, we had the privilege of working with Rev. F. Claude Adams, as General Board Representative in the Decatur District-Wide Training Week. The first week was at Perrin, Texas, with Rev. W. A. Lovell, pastor, teaching the course on "The Life of Christ" and leading the Institute at Jacksboro. The second week we were at Roanoke with Rev. Wesley Polk, pastor, and again we taught "The Life of Christ" and lead an Institute.

Brother Adams had so carefully and thoughtfully planned the work that practically every church in the district was reached by either a training school or institute.

We took two courses for credit and audited a third course at the Leadership School, Mt. Sequoyah, July 14-28.

Two weeks in August were spent in helping Brother J. P. Bonnecarrere at Meadow's Chapel and New River. At each of these church the following program was followed:

S. O. S. APPEAL

By W. W. Holmes,
Executive Secretary

The Board of Christian Education has no source of revenue except the Sunday School Day offering, the Fourth Sunday Missionary offering, and the small apportionment from the Conference collections.

We appreciate the Sunday School Day offerings as shown on page 3 of this bulletin. We earnestly request those schools which have not yet observed the day to do so at their earliest possible convenience. A Sunday School Day offering from all the schools in Louisiana in the next 30 days would save your Board much embarrassment.

The Missionary interests of our Conference are greatly in need of an enlarged Fourth Sunday offering for Missions.

Our whole Church, in all her connectional interests, is involved in our Conference collections this fall. Every preacher and every member should put forth every effort to raise the Conference Assessments in full. God help us to do our best.

LOCAL CHURCH BOARD CHRISTIAN EDUCATION HAS IMPORTANT PLACE IN CHURCH

Should Be Organized Without Delay.

These next few weeks before Conference should find every local church with an organized Local Church Board of Christian Education.

Since this board is directly responsible for administering the entire program of Christian Education in the Local Church, the organization and proper functioning of the Local Church Board is absolutely necessary if the Local Church is to meet its responsibility of Christian Education for its constituency. The success of our unified program of Christian Education depends largely on the ability and the preparedness of the members of this Board to study their tasks and administer the various elements of the program of Christian Education in the Local Church.

At the coming fourth Quarterly Conference it is hoped a large number of our pastors will be ready to report the name of the Chairman of the Local Church Board of Christian Education, and that it is diligently and prayerfully at work.

WORKERS MAKE REPORTS TO CONFERENCE BOARD

MRS. W. W. HOLMES
Conference Director Children's Work

To the Conference Board of Christian Education, Louisiana Conference:

As your Conference Superintendent of the Children's Division, I am submitting to you a report of the year's activities. This report is far from satisfactory to me, and I am confident will be unsatisfactory to you, as the needs and opportunities in this field are called to your attention. Limited time and limited means have prevented a larger service.

PROGRAM FOR THE CHILDREN'S DIVISION, STATE-WIDE CONFERENCE, APRIL 7 AND 8.

Child study was given emphasis at this conference and all of the discussions were ably led by Miss Jennie Lou Milton of the General Board of Christian Education. Miss Sadie Mai Wilson, also representing the General Board, presented Missionary Education of Children to a group of children's workers coming from every district in our conference.

DISTRICT AND SUB-DISTRICT CONFERENCES

Our State-Wide Conference was followed by a series of district and sub-district meetings with Miss Milton as the principal speaker. By previous correspondence with the district leaders these programs were so arranged that the specific problems of each district were discussed and helpful suggestions given for meeting these problems. It was our privilege to attend seven of these meetings. Since this time we have attended six district meetings and presented children's work.

VACATION SESSIONS OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Prepared one unit for vacation sessions which had wide use in our conference. Assisted in the preparation of the entire program, and superintended one school of two weeks duration. Assisted five groups in making plans for vacation sessions. We have had reports from seventeen churches that promoted vacation sessions, but feel confident that twice this number were held.

MID-WEEK SESSIONS

Have assisted the workers in two churches in planning for mid-week activities.

TRAINING

Approved by the General Board of Christian Education to teach Primary Materials and Methods and Primary Organization in Standard Training Schools.

CORRESPONDENCE

160 personal letters.
2000 form letters.

REV. A. K. McLELLAN
Extension Secretary

To the Chairman and Members of the Conference Board of Christian Education:

In accordance with your report to the 1930 Annual Conference, attaching to the office of Extension Secretary "somewhat enlarged duties," I have held myself in readiness to do whatever Brother Holmes should request of me at all times. I have tried to think only of the interest of the work itself.

We have every reason to rejoice and be thankful because of the splendid loyalty of our local churches in faithfully supporting their missionary special.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION AND PROMOTION

In the first few months of the year we made an earnest effort to reach a large number of our churches with our slides. Everywhere these were received enthusiastically for the information they gave about our Home and Foreign Missionary enterprise. Miss Langford and I made many of these places together in the interest of our work.

BULLETIN

This has been our most consistent medium of promotion. Each month information has been carried which was intended to be helpful to the workers in local churches. A large number of subscriptions were secured in an attempt to popularize the Bulletin. In order to do the most good the largest number of local workers must be reached by the Bulletin. This year we have sent out each month 2000 copies.

With the help and cooperation of the efficient Treasurer of the Young People's Work, F. Harold Riggs, we believe there has been arranged a plan whereby minimum confusion has

REV. W. W. HOLMES
Executive Secretary

To the Chairman and Members of the Conference Board of Christian Education:

At the last Annual Conference the Board of Education, the Sunday School Board, and the Epworth League Board were merged into one Board, the Board of Christian Education, and this Board was authorized and empowered to do the work formerly done by the three boards. To perfect this organization and unify the program of work has been difficult. It would have been difficult for a trained man giving his whole time to it. On account of a depleted treasury, provision could not be made for a full-time executive, so the pastor of the First Methodist Church in Alexandria was elected to this responsible office without pay. The many and varied duties of his large pastorate have made it impossible for him to give the needed time and attention to the work of the church. We are happy to report however, that progress has been made, and that already some of the fruits of the unified program may be seen.

THE COLLEGE

We have been able, through the fine services of Dr. N. E. Joyner and Mr. Floyd B. James, to handle the bond issue and the Mansfield College property in a business like way, and thus keep in the good graces of the banks. We would not for a moment minimize the seriousness of the financial status of our bond issue, but the outlook is by no means hopeless. Pursuant to the resolution adopted at the last Annual Conference, the Board will be able to

MISS LANGFORD REPORTS WORK OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE

When we speak of the Young People's Division of the Louisiana Conference we embrace a host of youth within our great church who, tomorrow, will give us our leadership and following. Might we not say that they contribute a large part of our leadership today? In most of our churches we find them teaching Sunday School, holding office as secretaries, treasurers, counselors, superintendents, promoting Epworth Leagues and in many other capacities. They are enthusiastic, expectant, ambitious, determined, and dependable. We are indeed proud of this band of youth. May God bless them abundantly, as they grow in Christian Service.

Although but half their year's program is over when Annual Conference convenes we are able to give an encouraging report of their work thus far.

At the Annual Assemblies held at Mansfield in June a new year was begun for our young people. Heretofore these assemblies comprised only Epworth League delegates. The two assemblies held this past summer were made up of delegates from over the entire young people's division of our church. Although existing conditions were expected to cut the attendance, those in charge were delighted with a larger registration than expected. More than three hundred registered with a large number attending over the week-ends. The instruction was splendid, the leadership most capable, and the spiritual atmosphere up-lifting and lasting. Much appreciation goes to the city of Mansfield and those leaders who made these assemblies the greatest revivals that take place in Louisiana each year.

This work is of interest to all Methodists of Louisiana, and especially those of the southern part of the State, for it gives the history of the Methodist Church in New Orleans from the earliest efforts in 1905 to the present. The earliest struggles are portrayed and deeds of heroism set forth with a vividness tbat challenges the thoughts of the readers of this work.

MRS. HOLMES' REPORT

many instances where we have felt that a need would be met we have mailed a large number of leaflets and pamphlets. Samples of lesson materials, periodicals, and mimeographed materials for Child Study groups have also been mailed.

CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH WEEK

A pageant, poster, and pamphlet of general suggestions were mailed to every church school superintendent in our conference. Through articles in our Bulletin attention was called to this observance, and also to thought provoking articles concerning this ohservance in our church school periodicals. To date we have not had a large number of reports concerning Childhood and Youth Week. The lateness of the date accounts for this, and we helieve the suggested program is being carried out by a large number of our schools.

CHILD STUDY GROUPS

We have assisted in the organization of two of these groups and acted as chairman of the program committee for one of them.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS OF CHILDREN'S WORK

In five of the districts of our Conference we have consecrated women who are rendering a notable service. Space forbids our giving a detailed report of their activities, but we wish to express deep and sincere appreciation for work being done by the following:

Mrs. James Kent—Minden District.

Mrs. J. W. Wynn—Lake Charles District.

Mrs. R. S Crichlow—New Orleans District.

Mrs. J. A. Reid, Monroe District.

Mrs. J. B. Magee—Baton Rouge District.

It is our hope that at an early date well qualified leaders may be secured for the three remaining districts.

NEEDS

We feel that this report would be incomplete should we fail to bring to your attention some of the needs as we see tbem, and to suggest for your consideration ways for meeting these needs.

We feel that a full-time paid director of Children's Work in our Conference is the outstanding need, and while the present financial outlook is rather discouraging, we believe that this need, if properly presented to the adult divisions of our church schools throughout the conference would meet a hearty response, and we cannot think of a like investment bringing larger returns.

Our workers for and with children need training, and we would urge courses for them in all the training program of our Conference.

As we are giving emphasis to the unified program, we feel that the missionary education of our children should not be separated from Christian education, and that since our Church school literature is so rich in missionary material, the Church school should he given this responsihility.

Miss Ethlee Neill, Secretary of Young People's Work, Minden District, has announced two district meetings at Winnfield, October 31-November 1, and Plain Dealing, November 7-8.

MEETING OF J. O. Y. YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION

On Sunday, October 11, the J. O. Y. Union of Minden District convened in Springhill with over a hundred young people present, from Cotton Valley, Minden, Plain Dealing, Sibley, and Springhill.

The devotional consisted of a singing contest between the various chapters. Plain Dealing won first place, with a very beautiful vocal solo. Cotton Valley and Springhill each had exceptionally good quartets, while Sibley and Minden each had solos.

At the close of the devotional, Mr. Alton Hortman, Vice-President, presided over the business session. At this time, Miss Ethlee Neill, District Secretary, brought a message to the union, incorporated in which was a report of the Conference Officers' meeting in Alexandria. She also announced plans for a District Week-end Rally, to be held sometime during the fall.

After the usual business, the Springhill Gospel Singers, a quintet of negro men, gave the young people a treat in the form of a number of spirituals. The afternoon offering was given to them to help defray their expenses to the Tri-State Singing Convention at Minden the following week.

It was announced that the next meeting would be held in Sibley, November 8. Delicious refreshments were served.

This union is doing excellent work, and has some of the best programs of any in the state. Mr. George Nelson of Plain Dealing is president; Miss Audrey Strayhan, secretary.

EXTENSION WORK

One of the ways open for service to the small church has been where the Extension Secretary assisted the pastor in a revival, and conducted a Cokesbury Training Class at the same time. This type was done at Simmesport, Meadows Chapel and New River, with Pastor R. T. Pickell and Rev. J. P. Bonecarrere.

LEADRESHIP TRAINING

The Cokesbury Leadership Training Course is proving more and more helpful to the workers of our small churches. This year your Extension Secretary held six one-teacher schools. But the most effective feature of the training work is the District-Wide Training plan where the local workers have the responsibility of leading the classes in their own churches.

Alexandria and Ruston Districts each carried out training week programs with gratifying results. A total of 165 credits were awarded during the year 1930-31.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY IN BATON ROUGE DISTRICT

The Week-end Pep Rally for the Baton Rouge District Young People was very successful in point of attendance as well as inspiration and information. Held at Keener Memorial Church October 23, 24, 25, there were over eighty young people representing the following churches: Jackson, Zachary, Ponchatoula, Hammond, Amite, Istrouma, St. Francisville and Keener.

Delegates were entertained in the homes of Keener and Istrouma young people, who were co-bosts. Supper Friday evening was the first meeting. Charlotte Searles entertained with a solo. After this meeting the football game hetween Baton Rouge High and Jesuits was attended in a body.

Saturday's program opened at 11, with Rev. Jerome Cain leading the devotional, the theme being "The Reality of God in Religion. Rev. A. K. McLellan explained the new missionary special, and made tbis part of the work much clearer.

After a most satisfying luncheon served hy the Woman's Missionary Society, entertainment was furnished hy Eleanor Cain and Rev. Grambling, the group again gathered for a period of husiness and administration led hy Miss Lillie Mae McQuaid, tbe most efficient district secretary. She read a telegram of greeting from Miss Elizabetb Langford, and tbe house voted to reply to this, expressing their regret because of her absence.

The feature of tbe afternoon program was sightseeing tour to the many points of interest in and around Baton Rouge. Tbis proved cducational as well as entertaining. At Southern University for Negroes a most enjoyable musical program was given hy a numher of the students fo the university. The sightseers were conducted over the grounds and buildings.

At the "angel" roast Saturday at the supper hour, Mr. Ardon O. French, Y. M. C. A. Secretary at L. S. U., spoke on the "Reality of prayer in Religion." After the feast, the leaguers sang many of their own choruses around the campfire, a most effective setting.

Sunday morning the entire group gathered in the young people's department for tbe opening devotional. Mr. Alton Pierce sang a most beautiful and fitting solo. The talk, "The Reality of Life in Religion," was given by Miss Mary Searles. Miss Lillie Mae McQuaid then led in a discussion of district plans for the remainder of tbe year, after which the meeting adjourned to attend the morning worship. Rev. C. E. McLean preached a special sermon on the general theme of "Christian Realities."

Again at 2 p. m., after lunch in the homes, tbe group assembled for the closing part of the program. Mr. Charles N. White, Conference President, hrought a message at this time, and spoke most encouragingly of tbe work done in this district. Miss McQuaid emphasized the importance of union work, and reports were given from the Hoyt M. Dohbs Chapters not already belonging were urged Union and the Elizaheth Langford Union. to join one of these unions and attend the meetings.

The meeting adjourned at 3 o'clock, and it is felt that the young people present received new entbusiasm and inspiration to carry them on in their work with renewed vigor—at least until the next district meeting, wbich is planned for February.

Puhlicity Agent.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF MINDEN DISTRICT

We had a very nice meeting in Standard on Septemher 27th. The young people of Standard and Olla met jointly. Much interest was shown by both groups. The object of the meeting was to present the new program of Young People's Work, and as a result both places are planning to reorganize as soon as possihle.

The young people of Jena will soon ohtain a charter under the new organization. They are working eagerly, and their spirit and interest is splendid.

The young people of Trout evidenced much interest in tbe new program, and intend to reorganize as soon as possihle. Tbey seem to like the idea of a unified program of work, and are enthusiastic.

ETHLEE NEILL,
District Secretary.

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

Just following the assemblies district camps were promoted in three of our districts. Baton Rouge District held its third camp at beautiful Camp Bluff Creek with a registration of more than fifty and a great program. Lake Charles District met for the fourth time at that unmatchable spot, Lake Arthur, with a group of young people totaling sixty-five. Minden and Alexandria Districts beld their third camp for these districts at Camp Windywood with some thirty-odd registered. In all, these camps reached more than two bundred young people and leaders. It is boped that a camp will be promoted in every district next summer.

At the summer assemblies, I asked to be released from traveling in the field on the first of September so we do not have a full time worker in this capacity in the field just now, but I am carrying on the promotional activities of the young people from my office in Monroe. The District Secretaries are helping, wonderfully, in their districts, and with other Conference officers the work is going forward.

In September a meeting of Conference officers and District Secretaries was held in Alexandria at which time plans were made for promotion throughout the year. Notable plans were made by these officers.

The work of organizing tbe young people's divisions according to tbe new plan of Christian Education is the principle factor in our program just now. Many of our churches have already set up their new boards and the representatives of this board from tbe young people's division are promoting that division according to a new program which is proving highly successful. I would advise all pastors and leaders of young people to inform themselves on this new plan and institute it in their churches as soon as possible. All of our new materials for work will be constructed according to this system and old organizations will probahly find their methods not coinciding.

I find that our young people are ready for this new promotion and will he eager to advance it within their groups if properly informed. Pamphlets on reorganization are to be had from the Nashville office and any help needed will be furnished by them.

Our financial program is not up to its usual standing hut our young people have done well. They continue to make two pledges, one to Conference Promotion and one to our Missionary enterprise whicb is now a part of our entire church program. Our assemhlies are now under our own financial management, since the closing of Mansfield College, and tbis past year we were able to finance both assemhlies and realize a small profit for conference promotional activities. We have a budget huilt for this year which includes the reinstating of a Field Secretary at the earliest time possible. Such a worker is very much needed in our field of work.

At the present time district rallies are being held in the different districts for promotional purposes, being sponsored by the District Secretaries. Tbese rallies prove highly successful in many ways.

As a representative of the youth of our church I speak for them all wben I express appreciation to our pastors for the noble work they are doing for our young people. As they convene at their next conference we pray that God's infinite wisdom may guide them in every step of the way and that they may feel His presence continually.

ELIZABETH LANGFORD,
Field Secretary.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

We need to seek to give to our young people a conscious and vital experience of God, which recognizes Him as the Father of all mankind, and which sees the Christian life as a sharing of His purpose for all mankind, to get them to have a conception of God as a divine Father of impartial love and justice. Witb this purpose in mind, our missionary education emphasizes neither home nor foreign missions to the exclusion or neglects of the other. If missionary education is represented only by an occasional "five minutes" talk on the regular program of the school, we shall continue to raise up church members who regard missions as an extra in Christian thought and practice. Mission study and missionary service lead the pupil into worthwhile activities in which he may learn the meaning and the joy of Christian service.

The aim of missionary education is that of training intelligent Christians, devoted to the extension of the Christ spirit throughout the world and throughout all the areas of human thought and action. Gifts of money and the use of time and effort are essentials to such training, but they are to be regarded as means rather than as the end.

The choice and use of materials and methods must be such as to create feelings of mutual friendliness and respect, not those of condensation and pity.

The methods must conform to the same laws of learning and teaching as govern any other education work.

YOUNG PEOPLE URGED TO OBSERVE EPWORTH HIGH NIGHT, DECEMBER 13TH

You will he interested to know that heginning with January, 1932, the new young people's periodical, the Epworth Highroad, will he placed in circulation. This, as you know, is a combination of the Highroad and the Epworth Era. Advance sheets of this publication indicate that it will be one of the finest youth periodicals that has been issued in America. I shall be very glad if you will bring this publication to the attention of the young people throughout your Conference. Probably the pastor will be glad to say a word urging that it be given a cordial and hearty reception by our young life.

Sunday, December 13th, has been recorded as Epworth Highroad Night. At this evening hour of worship the young people will be given an opportunity to suhscribe for this periodical. At a later time more definite information will be given you. This combination will mean a further economy to the church.

Mr. Lanier Hunt, of our editorial department, is in charge of this new publication, and I am sure that under his direction we are going to have one of the finest youth periodicals puhlished anywhere. Effort now in hehalf of the Epworth Highroad will be more than repaid in the support which it will bring to the unified program of Christian Education. Let us make Epworth Highroad Night a great occasion througbout our connection.

REV. W. W. HOLMES' REPORT

present a plan to the next Conference that will give some relief, and which will look ultimately to the paying of the bonds. There has been the finest spirit of understanding and cooperation between the Board and the college throughout the year.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

We believe our training record for the year 1930-31 is splendid, in spite of the many difficulties that were facing us, both in the Conference and the local church. There has been no desire to make strenuous efforts to set-up Standard Training Schools when local conditions did not permit, but every effort was made to encourage local leaders to carry on leadership training in their churches. Special mention should be made of the work done by our churches at Arcadia and DeRidder, and the training weeks in the Ruston and Alexandria Districts. The church at Arcadia, Rev. K. W. Dodson, pastor, through local training classes issued 29 credits, and the church at DeRidder, Rev. H. E. Pfost, pastor, issued 11 credits. These are examples of what local churches may do through their own efforts. Under the direction of Rev. R. M. Brown and Rev. A. S. Lutz, presiding elders, and Rev. J. S. Henley and Rev. D. B. Boddie, district secretaries, and local leadership in the districts, 13 institutes and 33 one-teacher schools were held in as many different local churches. Worthy of special mention is Mrs. Richard Hatch of the Union Sunday School, Mangham Charge, who is the first to be honored with a Cokesbury diploma in Louisiana.

During the year 339 Standard Training credits have heen issued, 169 Cokesbury credits and several hundred credits in Young People's work.

It is our opinion that the greatest results to he obtained from the program of Leadership Training must be hased upon the local class in the local church.

The Young People's Assemblies at Mansfield were largely attended, and more than 300 credits in study courses were issued. The tide of spiritual life ran high. To Rev. J. B. Grambling, Miss Elizabeth Langford, and a large corps of voluntary workers and teachers, we are deeply indebted for splendid services rendered in hehalf of our young people in State and District Assemblies, Summer Camps, and City Unions.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOLS AND CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH WEEK

We have had an unusual large numher of Vacation Church Schools this year. They bave been held in churches of all sizes and types, and with unusual success. The literature and texts used in these schools mark an improvement over that used in other years.

Childhood and Youth Week was largely ohserved throughout the Conference.

VISITATION AND ACTIVITIES

The many duties and responsihilities of a large pastorate have made it impossihle for your executive secretary to do any considerable traveling over the Conference. He attended the Christian Education Council in Nashville; many meeting concerning affairs at the College; six District Conferences; planned program and activities of State-wide Conference on Christian Education April 7 and 8 at Alexandria, and taught a course in the Young People's Assembly at Mansfield.

CORRESPONDENCE

The volume of correspondence in connection with all of the interests of the program of Christian Education has required much time, but through this channel your executive secretary has done a great amount of work he could not have done otherwise.

APPRECIATION

I wish to express my deep appreciation for the full and sympathetic cooperation of Mr. McLellan, Miss Langford, and Miss White of the office force, and our Conference Superintendents: Dr. W. W. Drake, Dr. A. S. Lutz, Rev. D. B. Raulins, Rev. J. B. Grambling, and Mrs. W. W. Holmes; and our District Secretaries, Rev. D. B. Boddie, Rev. J. H. Bowdon, Rev. R. H. Harper, Rev. R. H. Wynn, Rev. W. H. GGiles, Rev. D. B. Raulins, Rev. J. S. Henley, and Rev. Guy M. Hicks
